35 Women received their dead raised to life again. Others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection.

36 Still others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yes, and of chains and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were sawn in two, were tempted,<sup>a</sup> were slain with the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented—

38 of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And all these, having obtained a good testimony through faith, did not receive the promise, 40 God having provided something better for us, that they should not be made perfect apart from us.

11:18 <sup>a</sup>Genesis 21:12 11:26 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read of.

11:37 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text omits were tempted.

LIFE LESSONS

> 11:13 — These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off were assured of them . . .

*A*braham died having seen some, but not all, of God's promises fulfilled. We stand in precisely the same situation. God will certainly fulfill all His promises, but the greatest of them await the next life. Do we believe?

> 11:25, 26 — ... choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin . . . for he looked to the reward.

*T*he Bible tries to fool nobody. There is some pleasure in sin, even though it quickly passes. And there is some affliction in godliness, even though that quickly passes too. Yet the reward for godliness far outstrips any pleasure in sin.

The Race of Faith

12 Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us,
2 looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

The Discipline of God

3 For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, lest you become weary and discouraged in your souls.
4 You have not yet resisted to bloodshed, striving against sin.
5 And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to sons:

"My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD,

Nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him;

6 For whom the LORD loves He chastens, And scourges every son whom He receives."<sup>a</sup>

7 If<sup>a</sup> you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom a father does not chasten?

8 But if you are without chastening, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had human fathers who corrected us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much more readily be in subjection to the Father of spirits and live?

10 For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed best to them, but He for our profit, that we may be partakers of His holiness.

11 Now no chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

Renew Your Spiritual Vitality

12 Therefore strengthen the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees,
13 and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed.

14 Pursue peace with all people, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord;
15 looking carefully lest anyone fall short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by this many become defiled;

16 lest there be any fornicator or profane person like Esau, who for one morsel of food sold his birthright.

17 For you know that afterward, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for repentance, though he sought it diligently with tears.

The Glorious Company

18 For you have not come to the mountain that<sup>a</sup> may be touched and that burned with fire, and to blackness and darkness<sup>b</sup> and tempest,

19 and the sound of a trumpet and the voice of words, so that those who heard it begged that the word should not be spoken to them anymore.

20 (For they could not endure what was commanded: "And if so much as a beast touches the mountain, it shall be stoned<sup>a</sup> or shot with an arrow."<sup>b</sup>)

21 And so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, "I am exceedingly afraid and trembling."<sup>a</sup>)

22 But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to an innumerable company of angels, 23 to the general assembly and church of the firstborn who are registered in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect,

24 to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better things than that of Abel.

Hear the Heavenly Voice

25 See that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For if they did not escape who refused

12:6 <sup>a</sup>Proverbs 3:11, 12 12:7 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read It is for discipline that you endure; God . . . 12:18 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text reads to that which. <sup>b</sup>NU-Text reads gloom. 12:20 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text omit the rest of this verse. <sup>b</sup>Exodus 19:12, 13 12:21 <sup>a</sup>Deuteronomy 9:19

➤ 12:2 — . . . looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame . . .

Just as Abraham kept on his course of faith by trusting in God's promise to reward his obedience, so Jesus kept on His infinitely tougher course by looking toward God's promise to reward Him for His obedience.

➤ 12:11 — Now no chastening seems to be joyful for the present, but painful; nevertheless, afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

Nobody likes to be disciplined. It never feels good. It never puts a smile on your face or a spring in your step—at least not initially. But if we cooperate with God when He corrects us, blessing always results.

Him who spoke on earth, much more shall we not escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven,

26 whose voice then shook the earth; but now He has promised, saying, "Yet once more I shake<sup>a</sup> not only the earth, but also heaven."<sup>b</sup>

27 Now this, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may<sup>a</sup> serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear.

29 For our God is a consuming fire.

Concluding Moral Directions

13 Let brotherly love continue.

2 Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some have unwittingly entertained angels.

3 Remember the prisoners as if chained with them—those who are mistreated—since you yourselves are in the body also.

4 Marriage is honorable among all, and the bed undefiled; but fornicators and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you."<sup>a</sup>

6 So we may boldly say:

"The LORD is my helper;

I will not fear.

What can man do to me?"<sup>a</sup>

Concluding Religious Directions

7 Remember those who rule over you, who have spoken the word of God to you, whose faith follow, considering the outcome of their conduct.

8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

9 Do not be carried about<sup>a</sup> with various and strange doctrines. For it is good that the heart be established by grace, not with foods which have not profited those who have been occupied with them.

10 We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle have no right to eat.

11 For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp.

12 Therefore Jesus also, that He might sanctify the people with His own blood, suffered outside the gate.

13 Therefore let us go forth to Him, outside the camp, bearing His reproach.

14 For here we have no continuing city, but we seek the one to come.

15 Therefore by Him let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name.

16 But do not forget to do good and to share, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 Obey those who rule over you, and be submissive, for they watch out for your souls, as those who must give account. Let them do so with joy and not with grief, for that would be unprofitable for you.

Prayer Requested

18 Pray for us; for we are confident that we have a good conscience, in all things desiring to live honorably.

19 But I especially urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

Benediction, Final Exhortation, Farewell

20 Now may the God of peace who brought up our Lord Jesus from the dead, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant,

13:6 <sup>a</sup>Psalms 118:6 13:9 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read away.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 12:28 — Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear.

Divine grace never encourages us to live in ungodly ways, but instead motivates us to fear and obey God in a healthy and reverent way. Grace enables us to serve, not to sin.

Just like His Father, "the Everlasting God" (Gen. 21:33), whose "ways are everlasting" (Hab. 3:6) and who says, "I do not change" (Mal. 3:6), so Jesus remains the same forever.

Identification with Jesus brings undeniable blessings, but it can also bring reproach and persecution. This is not something to be avoided at all costs, but rather is something to be embraced when it occurs.

➤ 13:20, 21 — Now may the God of peace . . . make you complete in every good work to do His will, working in you what is well pleasing in His sight . . .

It is God working in us that enables us to do anything worthwhile for His kingdom. We obey God, do His will, and please Him only by relying on the Holy Spirit who dwells within us.

21 make you complete in every good work to do His will, working in you<sup>a</sup> what is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.
22 And I appeal to you, brethren, bear with the word of exhortation, for I have written to you in few words.
23 Know that our brother Timothy has been set free, with whom I shall see you if he comes shortly.

24 Greet all those who rule over you, and all the saints. Those from Italy greet you.
25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF JAMES

Faith without works cannot be called faith. “Faith without works is dead” (2:26), James insists; and a dead faith is worse than no faith at all.

Faith must work; it must produce; it must make itself visible. Verbal faith is not enough and mental faith is insufficient. Genuine faith inspires and empowers godly action. Throughout his letter, James integrates true faith and everyday practical experience by stressing that true faith must manifest itself in works of faith—otherwise, it is not real faith at all.

Genuine faith endures trials. Trials are bound to come, but a strong faith will face them head-on and develop endurance.

Genuine faith understands temptations. It will never consent to our lusts and thereby slide into sin.

Genuine faith harbors no prejudice. For James, faith and favoritism cannot coexist.

Genuine faith has the power to control the tongue. This small but immensely powerful part of the body must be held in check—and only grace, working through faith, can manage it.

Genuine faith acts wisely. It gives us the ability to choose heavenly wisdom that brings life and to shun earthly wisdom that brings death.

Genuine faith produces separation from the world and submission to God. It provides us with the ability to resist the devil and humbly draw near to God.

Finally, genuine faith waits patiently for the coming of the Lord. Although troubles and trials cause us grief, faith in the return of Christ stifles complaining.

The name Iakobos (James) in 1:1 is the basis for the early title, Iakobou Epistole, “Epistle of James.” Iakobos is the Greek form of the common Hebrew name Jacob.

Theme: Genuine faith gets to work on a daily basis by depending on the power of God.

Author: Generally agreed that James “the Lord’s brother” (Gal. 1:19) wrote this letter.

Date: Probably written before A.D. 50, making it perhaps the earliest book in the New Testament, with the possible exception of Galatians.

Structure: James briefly greets his audience (1:1); then instructs them about trials (1:2–20), the nature of true faith (1:21—2:26), the untamable tongue (3:1–12), heavenly wisdom (3:13–18), pride versus humility (4:1–17), warnings to the rich (5:1–6), persevering patience (5:7–12), and miscellaneous matters (5:13–18); and then gives a brief conclusion (5:19, 20).

As you read James, watch for several life principles that play an important role in this book:

29. We learn more in our valley experiences than on our mountaintops. See James 1:2–4; 5:10; pages 1458, 1462.

22. To walk in the Spirit is to obey the initial promptings of the Spirit. See James 1:22–27; page 1459.

Greeting to the Twelve Tribes

1 James, a bondservant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,

To the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad:

Greetings.

Profiting from Trials

- 2 My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials,
 3 knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience.
 4 But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing.
- * 5 If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him.
 6 But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind.
 7 For let not that man suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord;
 8 he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

The Perspective of Rich and Poor

9 Let the lowly brother glory in his exaltation,
 10 but the rich in his humiliation, because as a flower of the field he will pass away.
 11 For no sooner has the sun risen with a burning heat than it withers the grass; its flower falls, and its beautiful appearance perishes. So the rich man also will fade away in his pursuits.

Loving God Under Trials

- * 12 Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.
- 13 Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does He Himself tempt anyone.
 14 But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desires and enticed.
 15 Then, when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, brings forth death.
 16 Do not be deceived, my beloved brethren.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 1:2, 3 — My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience.

There is nothing joyful about trials, in and of themselves. There is no value in suffering for its own sake. God uses both trials and suffering to test our faith, so that we may learn to patiently endure.

➤ 1:13 — Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does He Himself tempt anyone.

Life Examples:

JAMES

JAMES 1:1

At the beginning, James refused to believe in either the ministry or the deity of Jesus, his brother (Mark 3:32-35; John 7:5). James' disbelief remained steadfast throughout Jesus' earthly life. Only after the Resurrection did James finally realize the truth.

In 1 Corinthians 15:5-8, Paul lists those to whom the risen Christ appeared. There, along with the disciples, James is singled out. Soon after the Resurrection, James and his brothers joined the disciples in devoting themselves to prayer as they awaited the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:14).

James—not Peter or one of the other disciples—led the Jerusalem church through its early days. The missionaries who informed this church of their activities reported to James, its leader (Acts 15:12-21; 21:18).

James proves that even when you feel the most comfortable with the Lord—even when you believe you have Him figured out—He can still surprise you and change your world.

See the Life Principles Index for further study:

1. Our intimacy with God—His highest priority for our lives—determines the impact of our lives.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning.

To say that God tempts anyone to sin is to confuse the Lord with the devil. The whole satanic purpose of temptation is to entice people away from God and His best for them.

➤ 1:17 — Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning.

Do you enjoy good health and a roof over your head? If so, that's God's gift. Do you have enough to eat, a solid church home, some faithful friends, a source of income? A generous God bestows them all.

18 Of His own will He brought us forth by the word of truth, that we might be a kind of first-fruits of His creatures.

Qualities Needed in Trials

19 So then,<sup>a</sup> my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath;

Doers—Not Hearers Only

21 Therefore lay aside all filthiness and overflow of wickedness, and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.

22 But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves.

23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror;

24 for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was.

25 But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in what he does.

26 If anyone among you<sup>a</sup> thinks he is religious, and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this one's religion is useless.

27 Pure and undefiled religion before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their trouble, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

Beware of Personal Favoritism

2 My brethren, do not hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with partiality.

2 For if there should come into your assembly a man with gold rings, in fine apparel, and there should also come in a poor man in filthy clothes,

3 and you pay attention to the one wearing the fine clothes and say to him, "You sit here in a good place," and say to the poor man,

"You stand there," or, "Sit here at my footstool,"

4 have you not shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?

5 Listen, my beloved brethren: Has God not chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him?

6 But you have dishonored the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you and drag you into the courts?

7 Do they not blaspheme that noble name by which you are called?

8 If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself,"<sup>a</sup> you do well;

9 but if you show partiality, you commit sin, and are convicted by the law as transgressors.

10 For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 For He who said, "Do not commit adultery,"<sup>a</sup> also said, "Do not murder."<sup>b</sup> Now if you do not commit adultery, but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak and so do as those who will be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For judgment is without mercy to the one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

Faith Without Works Is Dead

14 What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food,

16 and one of you says to them, "Depart in peace, be warmed and filled," but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit?

1:19 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text reads Know this or This you know. 1:26 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text omits among you. 2:8 <sup>a</sup>Leviticus 19:18 2:11 <sup>a</sup>Exodus 20:14; Deuteronomy 5:18. <sup>b</sup>Exodus 20:13; Deuteronomy 5:17

Our culture tends to consider people "spiritual" merely if they have an interest in spiritual things. That is not the biblical perspective. Only those who hear God's voice and obey it are spiritual.

➤ 2:5 — Has God not chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him?

Earthly riches do not equal spiritual wealth, anymore than economic destitution indicates spiritual poverty. Those who love God, regardless of their earthly financial position, are "rich in faith" and "heirs of the kingdom."

James does not mean that if you steal a pretzel you are guilty of murder. He means that all sin is a violation of God's holy character, and therefore you oppose not only His commandment but Him (see Ps. 51:4).

17 Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

➤ 18 But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without your<sup>a</sup> works, and I will show you my faith by my<sup>b</sup> works.

➤ 19 You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe—and tremble! 20 But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead?<sup>a</sup>

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered Isaac his son on the altar?

22 Do you see that faith was working together with his works, and by works faith was made perfect?

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness."<sup>a</sup> And he was called the friend of God.

24 You see then that a man is justified by works, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise, was not Rahab the harlot also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

The Untamable Tongue

3 My brethren, let not many of you become teachers, knowing that we shall receive a stricter judgment.

➤ 2 For we all stumble in many things. If anyone does not stumble in word, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Indeed,<sup>a</sup> we put bits in horses' mouths that they may obey us, and we turn their whole body.

4 Look also at ships: although they are so large and are driven by fierce winds, they are turned by a very small rudder wherever the pilot desires.

➤ 5 Even so the tongue is a little member and boasts great things. See how great a forest a little fire kindles!

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity. The tongue is so set among our members that it defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire by hell.

7 For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and creature of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind.

8 But no man can tame the tongue. It is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

9 With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceed blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be so.

11 Does a spring send forth fresh water and bitter from the same opening?

Heavenly Versus Demonic Wisdom

13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by good conduct that his works are done in the meekness of wisdom.

14 But if you have bitter envy and self-seeking in your hearts, do not boast and lie against the truth.

15 This wisdom does not descend from above, but is earthly, sensual, demonic.

16 For where envy and self-seeking exist, confusion and every evil thing are there.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 2:18 — But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works.

James has no quarrel with faith. He understands that faith alone can save someone. What he opposes is a phony faith, the kind that supposedly exists without giving any practical confirmation of its existence.

➤ 2:19 — You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe—and tremble!

Belief in God is not the same as faith in God. Demons believe that God exists. They also believe that Christ rose from the grave. But they do not willingly submit to His will or eagerly put their destiny in His hands.

None of us has become perfect (see Phil. 3:12). None of us does everything right. None of us is so wise that we always speak the right word or so strong that we always do the right thing. Remembering this keeps us humble.

➤ 3:5 — Even so the tongue is a little member and boasts great things. See how great a forest a little fire kindles!

James does not mean to glorify the power of the tongue, but rather he wants to show how even a very small part of our body remains out of our control, so long as we try to control it in our own strength.

➤ 3:17 — But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy.

God's wisdom leads to harmony and peace, while human wisdom leads to arrogance and dissension. What kind of wisdom do you tend to rely on? You can answer that question by evaluating your relationships.

18 Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

Pride Promotes Strife

4 Where do wars and fights come from among you? Do they not come from your desires for pleasure that war in your members?

2 You lust and do not have. You murder and covet and cannot obtain. You fight and war. Yet<sup>a</sup> you do not have because you do not ask.

3 You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures.

4 Adulterers and<sup>a</sup> adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

5 Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Spirit who dwells in us yearns jealously"?

6 But He gives more grace. Therefore He says:

*"God resists the proud,
But gives grace to the humble."<sup>a</sup>*

Humility Cures Worldliness

7 Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you.

8 Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

9 Lament and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom.

10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up.

Do Not Judge a Brother

11 Do not speak evil of one another, brethren. He who speaks evil of a brother and judges his brother, speaks evil of the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge.

12 There is one Lawgiver,<sup>a</sup> who is able to save and to destroy. Who<sup>b</sup> are you to judge another?<sup>c</sup>

Do Not Boast About Tomorrow

13 Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will<sup>a</sup> go to such and such a city, spend a year there, buy and sell, and make a profit";

14 whereas you do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away.

15 Instead you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that."

16 But now you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil.

17 Therefore, to him who knows to do good < and does not do it, to him it is sin.

Rich Oppressors Will Be Judged

5 Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you!

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have heaped up treasure in the last days.

LIFE LESSONS

> 4:2 — ... you do not have because you do not ask.

Why does God make us ask Him for what we need and want, rather than just giving it to us without asking? For one thing, He knows that if He did not set it up this way, He might never get to fellowship with us.

> 4:3 — You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures.

By "pleasures," James means "ungodly pleasures." He does not mean, as some think, that they can ask God only for those things that will give them no pleasure. God wants us to enjoy that which honors Him.

> 4:10 — Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up.

This is another way of saying, as God spoke through Samuel the prophet, "those who honor Me I will honor, and those who despise Me shall be lightly esteemed" (1 Sam. 2:30).

> 4:17 — Therefore, to him who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.

When God puts a burden on our hearts for someone, we dare not shove the inclination to the back of our minds. If we do such a wicked thing, John asks, "how does the love of God abide in" us (1 John 3:17)?

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can I enrich my time alone with God?

JAMES 4:8

Have you ever sat down in a quiet place with your Bible, ready to have a devotional time with the Lord—but you felt aimless? Maybe you flipped through the pages and finally settled on a psalm. But then you remembered another appointment, so you said a quick prayer and told yourself you would pray more later—but it never happens.

You're not alone if you feel frustrated with the quality of your quiet times. As much as you may desire real intimacy with your personal Savior, however, remember that He longs for it even more. James 4:8 promises, "Draw near to God and He will draw near to you."

It helps many people to get some direction on how to develop a close walk with Christ. Specific goals can help you to focus on His Word daily.

First, select a plan that fits your lifestyle and level of understanding. Remember, spending time with God will almost never just "fit in" to your daily routine. You must schedule and then jealously guard your time with God. The more you honor that appointment, the greater you will desire to protect it—and the greater your enrichment.

Have you ever run across puzzling words or passages? Instead of waiting until later to consider the issues, sit down with a Bible dictionary and concordance or other study aids. You may not resolve your question completely, but seeking His truth on your own can spur amazing growth.

Maybe you cannot afford to purchase your own Bible study tools. Never give up! Seek other options. A lot of good Bible reference material is available free on the Internet. Some churches have libraries where you can borrow what you need, as do selected public libraries. Ask your pastor or church associate if they have materials you may use. Most people find the body of Christ eager to help in this pursuit.

As you read the Bible, have a notebook and pen ready to write a spiritual journal. Some people record their daily prayers, leaving a space to describe how God answered them. You may prefer a format in which you write down a special verse and describe why it impacted you. If you have kept a journal before, you know what a treat it is to see a reminder of your spiritual journey.

Are you ready for a relationship with Jesus that knows no boundaries? Then open your time, your life, your heart—and expect the Lord's involvement.

Be Patient and Persevering

7 Therefore be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early and latter rain.

8 You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand.

9 Do not grumble against one another, brethren, lest you be condemned.<sup>a</sup> Behold, the Judge is standing at the door!

10 My brethren, take the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord, as an example of suffering and patience.

11 Indeed we count them blessed who endure. You have heard of the perseverance of Job and seen the end intended by the Lord—

5:9 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read judged.

LIFE LESSONS

> 5:7 — Therefore be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord.

We do not know when the Lord will return to reward His faithful people and to set right the world, but we know that He will. His promise gives us hope—but we must remain patient until He fulfills it.

> 5:11 — You have heard of the perseverance of Job and seen the end intended by the Lord—that the Lord is very compassionate and merciful.

Job had to go through some very dark, excruciating days, but never once during his trials did the Lord ever leave him. It helps to remember God's unchanging compassion and mercy when we suffer.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT PRINCIPLES FOR EFFECTIVE INTERCESSION

James 5:15, 16

Each of us has prayed for others without seeing results. When that happens, it's easy to get discouraged. Rather than give up, we should review our lives to see if we need to alter something.

1. Our prayers must flow from a heart filled with love, compassion, and forgiveness.

Our prayers will fail if our hearts fill up with bitterness, resentment, or anger. Pray first that you might have God's love and compassion for others, and then that you might forgive them fully.

2. We must recognize that our prayers are the link between another person's need and God's inexhaustible resources.

Ask the Lord to reveal to you the true needs of a person, not just the superficial or symptomatic needs. Ask Him also to reveal to you the greatness of His love and power and to help you desire to meet those needs.

3. We must identify with the need of the other person.

Compassion feels the full depth of another's need. When we see people as truly hurting, bleeding, and agonizing on the inside—when we see them with the eyes of Jesus—our compassion gets released and we pray with a new degree of understanding and depth of emotion.

4. We must desire the highest good in the person's life.

God may not reveal to us His highest good for another person, but we can make it our prayer nonetheless. We do not need to know exactly what God wants to bring to pass. Ultimately, God's highest good is wholeness. Wholeness includes vibrancy and life in every domain: spirit, mind, body, emotions, relationships, and finances.

5. We must be willing to be part of the answer in meeting the person's need.

If you pray for another but remain unwilling for God to use you to meet that person's need, God will not hear your prayer. Jesus touched lepers, the unclean, the desperately sick, and the dead. He never backed away from people in need, nor did He pass them on to someone else. We are to follow His example.

6. We must be willing to persevere.

We must keep on praying, regardless of whether we see immediate results. The longer we pray for a person, the more tightly our hearts will be knit to him or her. Prayer binds us together with a spiritual glue far stronger than anything man can create. Such a bond lasts into eternity.

Compassion

of another's need.

WE LEARN MORE IN OUR VALLEY EXPERIENCES THAN ON OUR MOUNTAINTOPS.

JAMES 5:10

*A*dvorsity, anguish, trials, tribulations, and heartaches operate as lessons in the school of experience. They bring us to a place of new insight and understanding; they can alter our perception of the world and of God, and lead us to change our behavior. The Lord, of course, is the ultimate Teacher. He is the One to whom we must look for the meaning of any lesson related to adversity.

God allows adversity for at least three reasons:

1. God uses adversity to get our attention

The Lord uses a wide variety of methods to gain our attention when necessary; adversity is one of them. One of the best responses I know to adversity that strikes us suddenly—and yet obviously—with a God-intended message is to turn to Psalm 25 and make it our personal prayer:

To You, O LORD, I lift up my soul. O my God, I trust in You; let me not be ashamed; let not my enemies triumph over me. Indeed, let no one who waits on You be ashamed; let those be ashamed who deal treacherously without cause. Show me Your ways, O LORD; teach me Your paths. Lead me in Your truth and teach me, for You are the God of my salvation; on You I wait all the day. Remember, O LORD, Your tender mercies and Your lovingkindnesses, for they are from of old. Do not remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions; according to Your mercy remember me, for Your goodness' sake, O LORD (vv. 1–7).

Don't delay in responding to the Lord when He moves to get your attention. Respond quickly and humbly. Hear what He has to say to you.

2. Adversity leads to examination

At times God sees fit to allow adversity into our lives to motivate us to self-examination. The winds of adversity blow away the surface issues and force us to cope with things on a deeper level. Adversity removes the cloak of what we are supposed to be to reveal the truth of who we are. The “real us” shows through.

We are to regularly examine both our faith and ourselves. Paul encouraged the

when He moves to get your attention

Corinthians, "Let a man examine himself" (1 Cor. 11:28). In other words, "Take an inquisitive look inside and discover what is driving you, motivating you, and enticing you."

God does not want negative elements from the past to lie around our lives and cause us trouble. Each of us is the temple of the Holy Spirit, and He wants us to be clean and usable vessels. We have no reason to allow the rubbish of the past to remain in our lives for years—old memories, haunting temptations, the baggage of unresolved hurts and unreconciled relationships. The Lord desires that we free ourselves of anything that might keep us in inner bondage, whether mentally, emotionally, psychologically, or spiritually. When we become complacent in accepting the hurts of the past as part of who we are, the Lord may bring a little adversity to lead us to pursue instead who we might be in Christ Jesus.

3. The effective lesson leads to change in behavior

Teachers often prepare behavioral objectives for their classroom lectures. These objectives list in concrete and measurable form the behaviors that the teacher desires for a student to display as proof that the student has learned the lesson. The lessons that the Lord teaches us through adversity are ultimately for that very purpose: a change in behavior, including a change in the belief that prompted the behavior.

It isn't enough that the Lord gets our attention or that we engage in self-examination. We can see a problem and know ourselves thoroughly, but unless we change our response to God in some way, we will never benefit fully from adversity or grow as a result of it.

Self-examination may feel painful. But remember, whatever you find within yourself, Jesus Himself came to help you carry that burden to the cross and deal with it there, once and for all. He has your best interest in mind. He knows that pain sometimes paves the path to complete healing and restoration.

If you are willing to allow God to surface the inner rubbish of your life, and if you are willing to change what needs to be changed, you will emerge from adversity closer to Christ, more mature as His child, and with far greater potential to reflect the love of God to the world around you.

Meeting Specific Needs

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PETER

Persecution can cause either growth or bitterness in the Christian life. It's our response that determines the result.

In his first letter, Peter encourages believers struggling with persecution to conduct themselves courageously for the Person and program of Christ. They must keep both their character and conduct above reproach. Having been born again to a living hope, they are to imitate the Holy One who has called them. The fruit of that character will result in conduct rooted in honor and submission: citizens toward government; servants toward masters; wives toward husbands; husbands toward wives; and Christians toward one another.

Only after Peter explains the meaning of submission does he deal with the difficult area of suffering. Persecuted Christians are not to "think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you" (4:12). Instead they are to rejoice as partakers of the suffering of Christ. In fact, "let those who suffer according to the will of God commit their souls to Him in doing good, as to a faithful Creator" (4:19). Only those who joyfully submit their lives to the good hand of God can manage such a supernatural response to a sometimes painful life.

Peter wrote his letter to Christians in the Black Sea coastal area. Evidently they were facing severe suffering and persecution because of their faith. Peter wanted them to know that they shouldn't be surprised or dismayed if they faced opposition and persecution, for Jesus Himself certainly faced both. Indeed, believers should feel hope and joy whenever God asks them to share with Jesus in His suffering: "rejoice to the extent that you partake of Christ's sufferings, that when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy" (4:13).

This epistle begins with the phrase Petros apostolos Jesou Christou, "Peter, the apostle of Jesus Christ." This is the basis of the early title Petrou A, the "First of Peter."

Theme: Suffering is part of walking with and serving Jesus Christ, and it is not to be feared, but to be embraced.

Author: The apostle Peter.

Date: Probably in the early A.D. 60s, but certainly before the death of emperor Nero in A.D. 68. Nero had Peter executed.

Structure: Peter greets the recipients (1:1, 2), praises God for His salvation (1:3–12), then encourages his readers to honor God by living in a godly way (1:13–5:12). He ends his letter with a brief final greeting (5:13, 14).

As you read 1 Peter, watch for several life principles that play an important role in this book:

23. You can never outgive God. See 1 Peter 1:3–5; page 1468.

2. Obey God and leave all the consequences to Him. See 1 Peter 2:8–12; page 1470.

27. Prayer is life's greatest time saver. See 1 Peter 3:7; page 1471.

7. The dark moments of our life will last only so long as is necessary for God to accomplish His purpose in us. See 1 Peter 3:13–17; page 1471.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How do I handle a difficult trial not of my own doing?

1 PET. 1:6, 7

God knows when we face horrendous situations. He hears our cries. Even those who maintain the closest fellowship with Him are not immune to feelings of hopelessness.

Many times God allows us to face hopeless circumstances in order to test and try our faith; it is the hopelessness that forces us to seek God, and it is there that we find strength and refreshment.

Does God care that your trials make you weary? Yes, and He knows every emotion, need, and desire you have. He also knows exactly what it will take to bring you into a more intimate relationship with Him.

The apostle Peter addressed his two letters to “those who reside as aliens, scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia” (1 Pet. 1:1; 2 Pet. 3:1). If he were choosing a modern title for his letters, he might consider “Encouragement For Times of Hopelessness,” or “Hope For The Hurting,” because encouragement and hope is exactly what Peter conveyed to these hurting believers.

These believers faced all kinds of persecution. They were beaten, slandered, assaulted, and in some cases would lose their lives for their faith in Jesus Christ. Peter called them “aliens” because they held a citizenship not of this world but of the kingdom of God. Still, they faced times of discouragement and needed hope. Peter explained that they could rejoice even in times of trial because of Jesus Christ, the living hope within them—their risen Savior and Lord (1 Pet. 1:3). Jesus protected them by the power of God (v. 5).

So long as we have Jesus, no situation is hopeless.

Would you like to enjoy an eternal hope? Then focus your heart on Jesus (1 Tim. 4:6). Remember, He is working to bring His will and good pleasure to the forefront of your life.

Even if you find yourself in a seemingly hopeless situation, know that God has an entirely different view of the details. If you will let Him, He will take your life, no matter how bruised and broken, and make something beautiful out of it.

Isn't this what hope is all about—beauty for ashes, gladness instead of sorrow, and a coat of praise instead of fainting (see Is. 61:1-3)? This is the ongoing ministry of Jesus Christ in your life. Therefore bring to Him your afflictions and disappointments. Tell Him your sorrows, and He will restore your hope.

LIFE LESSONS

> 1:3 — . . . according to His abundant mercy has begotten us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead . . .

Because we do not have a dead Savior, we have a living hope. The resurrection of Jesus guarantees that God will honor all His promises to His faithful children. That hope keeps us going in the darkest of times.

a little while, if need be, you have been grieved by various trials,
 7 that the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tested by fire, may be found to praise, honor, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ,
 8 whom having not seen<sup>a</sup> you love. Though now you do not see Him, yet believing, you rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory,
 9 receiving the end of your faith—the salvation of your souls.
 10 Of this salvation the prophets have inquired and searched carefully, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you,
 11 searching what, or what manner of time, the Spirit of Christ who was in them was indicating when He testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow.
 12 To them it was revealed that, not to themselves, but to us<sup>a</sup> they were ministering the things which now have been reported to you through those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven—things which angels desire to look into.

Living Before God Our Father

13 Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and rest your hope fully upon the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;
 14 as obedient children, not conforming yourselves to the former lusts, as in your ignorance;
 15 but as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct,
 16 because it is written, “Be holy, for I am holy.”<sup>a</sup>
 17 And if you call on the Father, who without partiality judges according to each one’s work, conduct yourselves throughout the time of your stay here in fear;

18 knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, like silver or gold, from your aimless conduct received by tradition from your fathers,
 19 but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot.
 20 He indeed was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you
 21 who through Him believe in God, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

The Enduring Word

22 Since you have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit<sup>a</sup> in sincere love of the brethren, love one another fervently with a pure heart,
 23 having been born again, not of corruptible seed but incorruptible, through the word of God which lives and abides forever,<sup>a</sup>
 24 because

“All flesh is as grass,

And all the glory of man<sup>a</sup> as the flower of the grass.

The grass withers,

And its flower falls away,

25 But the word of the LORD endures forever.”<sup>a</sup>

Now this is the word which by the gospel was preached to you.

2 Therefore, laying aside all malice, all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and all evil speaking,
 2 as newborn babes, desire the pure milk of the word, that you may grow thereby,<sup>a</sup>
 3 if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is gracious.

LIFE LESSONS

> 1:8 — . . . Though now you do not see Him, yet believing, you rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory . . .

A Christian life devoid of joy is not only unbiblical, it’s not much worth having. How could we not have joy in our hearts when we know that God loves us, is with us, promises to help us, and wants to bless us forever?

> 1:13 — Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and rest your hope fully upon the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ . . .

The Christian life is both a joyful experience and a serious business. It takes conscious, deliberate, Spirit-filled action to ponder God’s grace and Jesus’ return in such a way that it positively shapes how we live.

> 1:15 — . . . as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct . . .

Holiness is not a dour, grim-faced determination to do the religious things that drain all enjoyment out of life. God is a delightfully joyful God, and He invites us to join in His joy by imitating His ways.

> 2:2 — . . . as newborn babes, desire the pure milk of the word, that you may grow thereby . . .

As infants have a taste and a craving for their mothers’ nutritious milk, so we are to develop a taste and a craving for the life-giving Word of God. Growing in Christ requires that we spend time in His Word.

The Chosen Stone and His Chosen People

4 Coming to Him as to a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God and precious,

5 you also, as living stones, are being built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

* 6 Therefore it is also contained in the Scripture,

"Behold, I lay in Zion

A chief cornerstone, elect, precious,

And he who believes on Him will by no means be put to shame."<sup>a</sup>

7 Therefore, to you who believe, He is precious; but to those who are disobedient,<sup>a</sup>

*"The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief cornerstone,"<sup>b</sup>*

8 and

*"A stone of stumbling
And a rock of offense."<sup>a</sup>*

They stumble, being disobedient to the word, to which they also were appointed.

➤ 9 But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light;

10 who once were not a people but are now the people of God, who had not obtained mercy but now have obtained mercy.

Living Before the World

➤ 11 Beloved, I beg you as sojourners and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul,

12 having your conduct honorable among the Gentiles, that when they speak against you as evildoers, they may, by your good works which they observe, glorify God in the day of visitation.

Submission to Government

13 Therefore submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake, whether to the king as supreme,

14 or to governors, as to those who are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and for the praise of those who do good.

15 For this is the will of God, that by doing good you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men—

16 as free, yet not using liberty as a cloak for vice, but as bondservants of God.

17 Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.

Submission to Masters

18 Servants, be submissive to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the harsh.

19 For this is commendable, if because of conscience toward God one endures grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what credit is it if, when you are beaten for your faults, you take it patiently? But when you do good and suffer, if you take it patiently, this is commendable before God.

21 For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us,<sup>a</sup> leaving us<sup>b</sup> an example, that you should follow His steps:

22 "Who committed no sin,

Nor was deceit found in His mouth";<sup>a</sup>

23 who, when He was reviled, did not revile in return; when He suffered, He did not threaten, but committed Himself to Him who judges righteously;

24 who Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live for righteousness—by whose stripes you were healed.

25 For you were like sheep going astray, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer<sup>a</sup> of your souls.

Submission to Husbands

3 Wives, likewise, be submissive to your own husbands, that even if some do not obey the word, they, without a word, may be won by the conduct of their wives,

2 when they observe your chaste conduct accompanied by fear.

2:6 <sup>a</sup>Isaiah 28:16 2:7 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text reads to those who disbelieve.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 2:9 — But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people . . .

Peter uses a flurry of wonderful descriptions to portray the exalted position we enjoy as believers "in Christ." God calls us "chosen" and "royal" and "holy" and "special" so that we might begin to act like who we really are.

➤ 2:11 — Beloved, I beg you as sojourners and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul . . .

We get ourselves into trouble when we forget that this world is not our home. If we would remember we are only aliens and strangers here, we would not feel tempted to put down roots that can never take root.

Jesus is our example in all things, even in suffering. He did not willingly suffer merely for suffering's sake (see John 18:23), but He eagerly accepted it when He saw it as God's will for Him (see Luke 22:42).

3 Do not let your adornment be merely outward—arranging the hair, wearing gold, or putting on fine apparel—

4 rather let it be the hidden person of the heart, with the incorruptible beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in the sight of God.

5 For in this manner, in former times, the holy women who trusted in God also adorned themselves, being submissive to their own husbands,

6 as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose daughters you are if you do good and are not afraid with any terror.

A Word to Husbands

7 Husbands, likewise, dwell with them with understanding, giving honor to the wife, as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life, that your prayers may not be hindered.

Called to Blessing

8 Finally, all of you be of one mind, having compassion for one another; love as brothers, be tenderhearted, be courteous;<sup>a</sup>

9 not returning evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary blessing, knowing that you were called to this, that you may inherit a blessing.

10 For

“He who would love life

And see good days,

Let him refrain his tongue from evil,

11 Let him turn away from evil and do good;

Let him seek peace and pursue it.

12 For the eyes of the LORD are on the righteous,

And His ears are open to their prayers;

Suffering for Right and Wrong

13 And who is he who will harm you if you become followers of what is good?

14 But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. “And do not be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled.”<sup>a</sup>

15 But sanctify the Lord God<sup>a</sup> in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear; 16 having a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed. 17 For it is better, if it is the will of God, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

Christ's Suffering and Ours

18 For Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us<sup>a</sup> to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive by the Spirit,

19 by whom also He went and preached to the spirits in prison,

20 who formerly were disobedient, when once the Divine longsuffering waited<sup>a</sup> in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water.

21 There is also an antitype which now saves us—baptism (not the removal of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God), through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

22 who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, angels and authorities and powers having been made subject to Him.

4 Therefore, since Christ suffered for us<sup>a</sup> in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind, for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin,

2 that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of God.

3:18 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read you. 3:20 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read when the longsuffering of God waited patiently.

4:1 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text omits for us.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 3:4 — . . . let it be the hidden person of the heart, with the incorruptible beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in the sight of God.

What would happen in our spiritual lives if we spent as much time working on our souls as we do on our bodies? Our bodies are not unimportant, but they will die; our spirits, however, will live forever.

➤ 3:7 — Husbands, likewise, dwell with them with understanding, giving honor to the wife . . . that your prayers may not be hindered.

Why would failing to make the effort to understand and honor his wife hinder a husband's prayers? All believers, men and women, are co-heirs of God's promises, and He wants us to treat each other as we would treat Him.

➤ 3:15 — . . . always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear . . .

If someone were to ask you today why you are a Christian, what would you say? How would you answer someone who said there are many ways to God? How would you defend your belief in the resurrection of Christ?

➤ 4:2 — . . . that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of God.

Had He chosen to do so, God could have taken us immediately to heaven when we placed our faith in Christ. But He didn't. Why not? He wants us reach others for Him by showing them how His power changes our lives.

3 For we have spent enough of our past lifetime<sup>a</sup> in doing the will of the Gentiles—when we walked in lewdness, lusts, drunkenness, revelries, drinking parties, and abominable idolatries.

➤ 4 In regard to these, they think it strange that you do not run with them in the same flood of dissipation, speaking evil of you.

5 They will give an account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.

6 For this reason the gospel was preached also to those who are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

Serving for God's Glory

7 But the end of all things is at hand; therefore be serious and watchful in your prayers.

➤ 8 And above all things have fervent love for one another, for "love will cover a multitude of sins."<sup>a</sup>

9 Be hospitable to one another without grumbling.

10 As each one has received a gift, minister it to one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If anyone speaks, let him speak as the oracles of God. If anyone ministers, let him do it as with the ability which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Suffering for God's Glory

12 Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you;

13 but rejoice to the extent that you partake of Christ's sufferings, that when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy.

* 14 If you are reproached for the name of Christ, blessed are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you.<sup>a</sup> On their part He is blasphemed, but on your part He is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, a thief, an evildoer, or as a busybody in other people's matters.

16 Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this matter.<sup>a</sup>

17 For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it begins with us first, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God?

18 Now

"If the righteous one is scarcely saved, Where will the ungodly and the sinner appear?"<sup>a</sup>

19 Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God commit their souls to Him in doing good, as to a faithful Creator.

Shepherd the Flock

5 The elders who are among you I exhort, I who am a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that will be revealed:

2 Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, not by compulsion but willingly,<sup>a</sup> not for dishonest gain but eagerly;

3 nor as being lords over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock;

* 4 and when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that does not fade away.

Submit to God, Resist the Devil

5 Likewise you younger people, submit yourselves to your elders. Yes, all of you be submissive to one another, and be clothed with humility, for

"God resists the proud, But gives grace to the humble."<sup>a</sup>

5:5 <sup>a</sup>Proverbs 3:34

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 4:4 — . . . they think it strange that you do not run with them in the same flood of dissipation, speaking evil of you.

People who knew us before we placed our faith in Christ simply will not understand why we no longer want to participate in some of the ungodly things we did before we found God's love. Don't listen to their taunts.

➤ 4:8 — And above all things have fervent love for one another, for "love will cover a multitude of sins."

Even in the best of churches and the most godly of homes, things go wrong. What do we do then? The place to start (and end) is to choose to imitate God's love to us, and bear with one another (Col. 3:13).

➤ 4:19 — Therefore let those who suffer according to the will of God commit their souls to Him in doing good, as to a faithful Creator.

Did you realize that it is God's will for us to suffer at some points along the way of life's journey? We are "appointed" to it (1 Thess. 3:3) and are to "glory" in it (Rom. 5:3). Only trust in God enables us to endure.

➤ 5:2 — Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, not by compulsion but willingly . . .

God delights in willing service, not in grudging obedience—as if we were doing Him a favor by complying with His instructions. Eager obedience reveals a heart in love with the One who gave the command.

- 6 Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time,
 7 casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you.
 8 Be sober, be vigilant; because<sup>a</sup> your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.
 9 Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are experienced by your brotherhood in the world.
 10 But may<sup>a</sup> the God of all grace, who called us<sup>b</sup> to His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you.
 11 To Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Farewell and Peace

- 12 By Silvanus, our faithful brother as I consider him, I have written to you briefly, exhorting and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand.
 13 She who is in Babylon, elect together with you, greets you; and so does Mark my son.
 14 Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace to you all who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

5:8 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text omit because. 5:10 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text reads But the God of all grace . . . will perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you. <sup>b</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read you.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 5:7 — . . . casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you.

Regardless of the concern or worry, God wants us to bring everything to Him. He always has our best interests at heart and will rouse all His infinite power to help us become the people we are meant to be.

➤ 5:8 — Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.

We must never forget that we are in a spiritual war. Regardless of how well things may seem to be going for us, we live in a perpetual war zone. How many casualties occur because we think we live in a time of peace?

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PETER

First Peter deals with problems from the outside; Second Peter deals with problems from the inside. Peter writes in his second letter to warn believers about false teachers who promote damaging doctrine.

He begins by urging his friends in Christ to keep close watch on their personal lives. The Christian life demands diligence in pursuing moral excellence, knowledge, self-control, perseverance, godliness, brotherly kindness, and selfless love. Such careful attention to godliness pays huge dividends, “For if these things are yours and abound, you will be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ” (1:8).

By contrast, the false teachers trying to seduce unsuspecting believers are sensual, arrogant, greedy, and covetous. They scoff at the thought of future judgment and live as if their current prosperity would remain the unalterable pattern for the future. Peter reminds his readers that although God’s longsuffering nature may prompt Him to delay in sending judgment, ultimately that judgment will come; and these false teacher “will utterly perish in their own corruption, and will receive the wages of unrighteousness” (2:12, 13), and so for them “is reserved the blackness of darkness forever” (2:17).

Peter does not want his Christian friends to forget that the Lord Jesus is most certainly coming back to earth in power and great glory, bringing both His judgment and His rewards with Him. In view of that awesome fact, believers should live in a godly, blameless, and steadfast manner (3:11–15).

To distinguish this epistle from the first by Peter, it was given the Greek title Petrou B, the “Second of Peter.”

Themes: False teachers may spread doctrine that appeals to the flesh, but they face the awesome judgment of God—and so will all those who embrace their teaching.

Author: The apostle Peter.

Time: Probably written around A.D. 65–67.

Structure: Peter introduces himself (1:1, 2), encourages his friends to grow in godliness (1:3–11), explains his purpose for and authority in writing (1:12–21), warns against false teachers (2:1–22), reminds them of the return of Jesus (3:1–16), and makes a few closing remarks (3:17, 18).

As you read 2 Peter, watch for several life principles that play an important role in this book:

- 9. Trusting God means looking beyond what we can see to what God sees. See 2 Peter 1:2–4; page 1475.
- 3. God’s Word is an immovable anchor in times of storm. See 2 Peter 1:19–21; page 1475.
- 14. God acts on behalf of those who wait for Him. See 2 Peter 3:1–9; pages 1476, 1478.
- 30. An eager anticipation of the Lord’s return keeps us living productively. See 2 Peter 3:10–13; page 1478.

Greeting the Faithful

1 Simon Peter, a bondservant and apostle of Jesus Christ,

To those who have obtained like precious faith with us by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord,
3 as His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue,

4 by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

Fruitful Growth in the Faith

5 But also for this very reason, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue, to virtue knowledge,

6 to knowledge self-control, to self-control perseverance, to perseverance godliness,

7 to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness love.

8 For if these things are yours and abound, you will be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 For he who lacks these things is shortsighted, even to blindness, and has forgotten that he was cleansed from his old sins.

10 Therefore, brethren, be even more diligent to make your call and election sure, for if you do these things you will never stumble;

11 for so an entrance will be supplied to you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Peter's Approaching Death

12 For this reason I will not be negligent to remind you always of these things, though you know and are established in the present truth.

13 Yes, I think it is right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you,
14 knowing that shortly I must put off my tent, just as our Lord Jesus Christ showed me.
15 Moreover I will be careful to ensure that you always have a reminder of these things after my decease.

The Trustworthy Prophetic Word

16 For we did not follow cunningly devised fables when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of His majesty.

17 For He received from God the Father honor and glory when such a voice came to Him from the Excellent Glory: "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

18 And we heard this voice which came from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain.

19 And so we have the prophetic word confirmed,<sup>a</sup> which you do well to heed as a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts;

20 knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of any private interpretation;<sup>a</sup>

21 for prophecy never came by the will of < man, but holy men of God<sup>a</sup> spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

Destructive Doctrines

2 But there were also false prophets among < the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction.

2 And many will follow their destructive ways, because of whom the way of truth will be blasphemed.

LIFE LESSONS

> 1:3 — . . . His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us . . .

Everything we need to become more like Christ, God has already given us. We do not need some new experience or fresh revelation to help us draw close to God; we simply have to appropriate what He's already given.

> 1:8 — For if these things are yours and abound, you will be neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus wants our spiritual lives to become both lush and fruitful, for He knows that such a fertile life greatly pleases God and gives us enormous satisfaction. How do we become fruitful? By abiding in Christ.

> 1:21 — . . . prophecy never came by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

Although the Bible came to us through redeemed men, and therefore displays many of their traits and unique ways of communicating, yet the message is directly from God and relays exactly what He wanted to say.

> 2:1 — But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies . . .

The best way to recognize counterfeit doctrine is to become thoroughly familiar with the truth. Someone whose mind has been trained to know and love the truth will not easily be led astray by false teaching.

3 By covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words; for a long time their judgment has not been idle, and their destruction does<sup>a</sup> not slumber.

Doom of False Teachers

4 For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to hell and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved for judgment;

5 and did not spare the ancient world, but saved Noah, one of eight people, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood on the world of the ungodly;

6 and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, making them an example to those who afterward would live ungodly;

7 and delivered righteous Lot, who was oppressed by the filthy conduct of the wicked

8 (for that righteous man, dwelling among them, tormented his righteous soul from day to day by seeing and hearing their lawless deeds)—

* 9 then the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust under punishment for the day of judgment,

10 and especially those who walk according to the flesh in the lust of uncleanness and despise authority. <sup>R</sup>They are presumptuous, self-willed. They are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries, 11 whereas angels, who are greater in power and might, do not bring a reviling accusation against them before the Lord.

Depravity of False Teachers

12 But these, like natural brute beasts made to be caught and destroyed, speak evil of the things they do not understand, and will utterly perish in their own corruption,

13 and will receive the wages of unrighteousness, as those who count it pleasure to carouse in the daytime. They are spots and blemishes, carousing in their own deceptions while they feast with you,

14 having eyes full of adultery and that cannot cease from sin, enticing unstable souls. They have a heart trained in covetous practices, and are accursed children.

15 They have forsaken the right way and gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 but he was rebuked for his iniquity: a dumb donkey speaking with a man's voice restrained the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds<sup>a</sup> carried by a tempest, for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.<sup>b</sup>

Deceptions of False Teachers

18 For when they speak great swelling words of emptiness, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through lewdness, the ones who have actually escaped<sup>a</sup> from those who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are slaves of corruption; for by whom a person is overcome, by him also he is brought into bondage.

20 For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the beginning.

21 For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them.

22 But it has happened to them according to the true proverb: "A dog returns to his own vomit,"<sup>a</sup> and, "a sow, having washed, to her wallowing in the mire."

God's Promise Is Not Slack

3 Beloved, I now write to you this second epistle (in both of which I stir up your pure minds by way of reminder),

2 that you may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us,<sup>a</sup> the apostles of the Lord and Savior,

LIFE LESSONS

> 2:19 — While they promise them liberty, they themselves are slaves of corruption; for by whom a person is overcome, by him also he is brought into bondage.

People who encourage us to join them in their sin are like junkies who encourage people to join them in their drug habit. They promise a good time and a real high, but in fact they are trapped in a destructive lifestyle.

> 2:21 — For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them.

When Jesus asked Peter and the other disciples if they would leave Him, as others had, the burly fisherman replied, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life" (John 6:68). No one else does.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT SPIRITUAL GROWTH

2 Pet. 3:18

Not many people can say that on the day they were saved, someone explained to them the steps to spiritual growth. Unfortunately, some believers never hear how to grow in grace. Since none of us grows as a Christian without taking action, Peter instructs believers to “grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ” (2 Pet. 3:18).

Then how are we to grow? The Bible gives us some powerful guidelines.

First, we are responsible for renewing our mind (Rom. 12:2). Though God saves us and gives us a new spirit, He does not give us a new brain. Disobedience and rebellion have dug or worn many ugly trenches in our minds. So we must meditate on the Bible, which expresses the thoughts of God. Meditation is more than reading—it involves thinking about what the words mean and then applying the truth we discover. When we meditate on His Word and depend upon the Spirit’s power to help us put it into practice, our minds undergo the wonderful process of transformation. That is how we obtain “the mind of Christ” (1 Cor. 2:16).

Second, we must be ready to admit our failures and assume responsibility for them. When we deny our sins, we delay our spiritual growth; but when we confess our failures, the opposite happens—growth becomes inevitable. James tells us, “Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed” (James 5:16).

The third step naturally follows the second: After confession should come repentance. This is more than acknowledging wrongdoing or promising to try harder. Repentance means that we commit to make an about-face and head in the opposite direction from our sin. Paul taught new converts “that they should repent, turn to God, and do works befitting repentance” (Acts 26:20).

God’s ultimate goal is for all believers to become more Christlike. That happens only when, through faith, we tap into the power of God. With these steps, we will begin to move in that direction. And soon our relationship with God begins to deepen.

Some believers never hear how to grow in grace.

See the Life Principles Index for further study:

2. Obey God and leave all the consequences to Him.
  24. To live the Christian life is to allow Jesus to live His life in and through us.
  1. Our intimacy with God—His highest priority for our lives—determines the impact of our lives.

- 3 knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts,
 4 and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation."
 5 For this they willfully forget: that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of water and in the water,
 6 by which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water.
 7 But the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for fire until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.
 ➤ 8 But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.
 * 9 The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is long-suffering toward us,<sup>a</sup> not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.

The Day of the Lord

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.<sup>a</sup>
 11 Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, 12 looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will melt with fervent heat?

 13 Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.

Be Steadfast

14 Therefore, beloved, looking forward to these things, be diligent to be found by Him in peace, without spot and blameless;
 15 and consider that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation—as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, has written to you,
 16 as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which untaught and unstable people twist to their own destruction, as they do also the rest of the Scriptures.
 17 You therefore, beloved, since you know this beforehand, beware lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the error of the wicked;
 18 but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory both now and forever. Amen.

3:9 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text reads you. 3:10 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text reads laid bare (literally found).

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 3:3 — . . . knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts . . .

Why does Peter want us to know "first" that scoffers will come? Unless we are ready for it, scoffing can accomplish what reasoned debate cannot. Ridicule can prompt those who are unaware to unwisely conform.

➤ 3:8 — But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

God simply does not run this world by our timetable. What feels like a delay to us is right on schedule by His calendar. He often makes us wait, not to frustrate us, but to deepen our trust in Him.

While we often turn biblical prophecy into a forum for debate, the Scripture uses prophecy for far more practical purposes. Knowing what lies ahead should move us to please the God before whom we will soon stand for judgment.

➤ 3:16 — . . . in which are some things hard to understand, which untaught and unstable people twist to their own destruction, as they do also the rest of the Scriptures.

We should be neither discouraged nor surprised when we come upon Bible passages that we have a hard time understanding. Peter had the same difficulty—and God used him to help write Scripture!

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF

JOHN

God is light; God is love; and God is life. John enjoyed a delightful fellowship with that God and desperately wanted his spiritual children to enjoy the same thing.

God is light. To enjoy fellowship with the Lord we must walk in light. As we do so, we will regularly confess our sins, allowing the blood of Christ to continually cleanse us. We must avoid falling in love with the world and falling for the alluring lies of false teachers.

God is love. Since we are God's children, we must walk in love. In fact, John says that if we do not love, we do not know God. Love is more than just words; it requires action. Biblical love is unconditional, and when that brand of love characterizes us, we free ourselves of self-condemnation and increase our confidence before God.

God is life. Those who fellowship with God must possess His quality of life. Faith in Jesus Christ infuses us with God's life—eternal life.

John's second epistle reminds "the elect lady and her children" to love one another, but indicates that this love must be discerning. False teachers abound who do not acknowledge Christ as having come in the flesh—and it is false charity to open the door to false teaching.

In Third John, the apostle encourages a man named Gaius to foster Christian fellowship by hosting and supporting visiting missionaries. He also warns against the "me first" attitude of a church leader who left the way of love.

Although the apostle John's name is not found any of these books, they were given the titles Ioan-nou A, B, and C, the "First of John," the "Second of John," and the "Third of John."

Themes: By His very character, God is love, and to know Him is to extend that love to those around us.

Author: The apostle John.

Date: Believed to have been written from Ephesus near the end of the first century.

Structure: First John begins with a reminder of Christ's incarnation (1:1–4), followed by instruction on what it means to have fellowship with God (1:5–2:28) and further teaching on how a child of God should live (2:29–5:17). The book ends with how to identify the true and reject the false (5:18–21). 2 John encourages believers to walk in Christ's commandments and beware of deceivers, while 3 John commends hospitality and godly living.

As you read John's epistles, watch for several life principles that play an important role in these books:

15. Brokenness is God's requirement for maximum usefulness. See 1 John 1:6–10; page 1480.

30. An eager anticipation of the Lord's return keeps us living productively. See 1 John 2:28, 29; page 1482.

2. Obey God and leave all the consequences to Him. See 1 John 3:22–24; 5:2, 3; pages 1483, 1484.

28. No Christian has ever been called to "go it alone" in his or her walk of faith. See 2 John 5; 3 John 5–8; pages 1486, 1487.

What Was Heard, Seen, and Touched

1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, concerning the Word of life—

2 the life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and declare to you that eternal life which was with the Father and was manifested to us—

➤ 3 that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ.

Fellowship with Him and One Another

5 This is the message which we have heard from Him and declare to you, that God is light and in Him is no darkness at all.

➤ 6 If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth.

* 7 But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

* 9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

➤ 2 My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.

2 And He Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the whole world.

The Test of Knowing Him

3 Now by this we know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments.

4 He who says, "I know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoever keeps His word, truly the love of God is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him.

6 He who says he abides in Him ought himself also to walk just as He walked.

7 Brethren,<sup>a</sup> I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning.<sup>b</sup>

8 Again, a new commandment I write to you, which thing is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away, and the true light is already shining.

9 He who says he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in darkness until now.

10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and there is no cause for stumbling in him.

11 But he who hates his brother is in darkness and walks in darkness, and does not

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 1:3 — . . . that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ.

Everything in the Bible has been given to us to help us and enable us to enjoy an intimate relationship with God. God's top priority for your life is to walk in close fellowship with Him.

➤ 1:4 — And these things we write to you that your joy may be full.

Believers sometimes excuse some very foolish behavior with the statement, "But God wants me to be happy!" The truth is, God wants something much better for us than happiness—He wants joy. But that comes only in obedience to Him.

➤ 1:6 — If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth.

John, "the apostle of love," tends to be very uncompromising in his perspective on the Christian walk. Obedience to God is necessary, He says, not optional; and those who habitually disobey do not know God.

➤ 2:1 — My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.

There is no divine commandment to sin. Therefore, when we rely on the indwelling Spirit, we do not have to sin (see Gal. 5:16). Yet when we do occasionally sin by relying on ourselves, Jesus helps us get back on track.

When we obey God by the power of His Spirit, we not only please God and make it possible for us to enjoy close fellowship with Him, we also build confidence in our hearts that we truly belong to Him.

An intimate relationship with Christ makes it both possible and appealing for us to obey God, just as Jesus did. If we think of salvation as an invitation to sin—"He'll forgive me anyway"—we're on the wrong track.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

How can God use an imperfect person like me?

1 JOHN 1:9

Once you have accepted Jesus Christ, God's Holy Spirit lives in you. Through Him, God enables you to do everything He asks, making the possibilities for service limitless.

Have you been sitting on the sidelines because you have let sin and shame discourage you? Perhaps you feel as though God can't use your broken vessel.

Don't let your feelings overshadow the truth! God is big enough to forgive you, restore you, and use you to restore others. First John 1:9 says, "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

Once you have confessed and turned from your sins, you are cleansed—but God does not purify you and empower you with His Spirit merely to make you feel good. God's purification process fulfills the Scriptures and equips His children for service. The question is not, "Do I have the power?" It is, "How will I use that power?" Once you're asking the right question, consider a few prerequisites to answering it:

- Conviction of inadequacy. This is more than merely feeling as though God can't use you if you walk in the flesh; and it's not simply knowing that God alone is sovereign.

It is knowing and acknowledging that without the Holy Spirit, you are incapable, unwilling, and too weak to do what He asks of you.

- Purity of life. Don't confuse purity with perfection. Purity is continual, immediate confession of and repentance from sin.
- Prayer. When you willingly and genuinely acknowledge your inadequacy, you will consistently reach up to God through prayer. You know that He is your lifeline and that you cannot live without Him.
- Belief. Jesus tells us, "And all things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive" (Matt. 21:22). When you ask according to God's will, He answers. You must believe that He will do what He says.
- Engaged in service. God has given you the power of the Holy Spirit, and He wants you to be eager to use it.

Whether for ministry to one person or to many, the power of God's Spirit changes lives. God was big enough to transform your heart and save you from bondage to sin. He is also big enough to cleanse you, help you rise above discouragement, and use you to influence the lives of others—all for His glory.

See the Life Principles Index for further study:

3. Trusting God means looking beyond what we can see to what God sees.
4. The awareness of God's presence energizes us for our work.
1. Our intimacy with God—His highest priority for our lives—determines the impact of our lives.

I write to you, little children,
Because you have known the Father.

14 I have written to you, fathers,
Because you have known Him who is from the beginning.

I have written to you, young men,
Because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you,
And you have overcome the wicked
one.

Do Not Love the World

15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world.

17 And the world is passing away, and the * know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

Their Spiritual State

12 I write to you, little children,
Because your sins are forgiven you for
His name's sake.

13 I write to you, fathers,
Because you have known Him who is
from the beginning.

I write to you, young men,
Because you have overcome the wicked
one.

lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever.

Deceptions of the Last Hour

18 Little children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that the<sup>a</sup> Antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come, by which we know that it is the last hour.

➤ 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out that they might be made manifest, that none of them were of us.

20 But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things.<sup>a</sup>

21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist who denies the Father and the Son.

23 Whoever denies the Son does not have the Father either; he who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

Let Truth Abide in You

24 Therefore let that abide in you which you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, you also will abide in the Son and in the Father.

* 25 And this is the promise that He has promised us—eternal life.

26 These things I have written to you concerning those who try to deceive you.

27 But the anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will<sup>a</sup> abide in Him.

The Children of God

28 And now, little children, abide in Him, that when<sup>a</sup> He appears, we may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming.

29 If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness is born of Him.

3 Behold what manner of love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God!<sup>a</sup> Therefore the world does not know us,<sup>b</sup> because it did not know Him.

2 Beloved, now we are children of God; and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is.

3 And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

Sin and the Child of God

4 Whoever commits sin also commits lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness.

5 And you know that He was manifested to take away our sins, and in Him there is no sin.

6 Whoever abides in Him does not sin. Whoever sins has neither seen Him nor known Him.

7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous.

8 He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whoever has been born of God does not sin, for His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God.

The Imperative of Love

10 In this the children of God and the children of the devil are manifest: Whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is he who does not love his brother.

11 For this is the message that you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another,

12 not as Cain who was of the wicked one

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 2:19 — They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us . . .

Not even John the apostle knew what was in the hearts of those who made up his local church. He did not know that some members of his congregation did not truly know Jesus, until they abandoned the faith.

➤ 3:2 — . . . we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is.

One day we will exchange our worn-out, sin-prone, weak bodies for new models patterned after Jesus' resurrection body—strong, ageless, free of all sin and completely at home in the holy presence of God.

Jesus said that those who "abide" in Him—draw near to Him, listen to His words and obey them—would bear "much fruit," something that glorifies the Father (John 15:5, 8). Fruitful believers have the power to avoid sin.

and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his works were evil and his brother's righteous.

13 Do not marvel, my brethren, if the world hates you.

14 We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love his brother<sup>a</sup> abides in death.

15 Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

The Outworking of Love

16 By this we know love, because He laid down His life for us. And we also ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But whoever has this world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts up his heart from him, how does the love of God abide in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

19 And by this we know<sup>a</sup> that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before Him.

20 For if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.

21 Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence toward God.

22 And whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do those things that are pleasing in His sight.

23 And this is His commandment: that we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ and love one another, as He gave us<sup>a</sup> commandment.

The Spirit of Truth and the Spirit of Error

24 Now he who keeps His commandments abides in Him, and He in him. And by this we know that He abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us.

4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

2 By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God,

3 and every spirit that does not confess that<sup>a</sup> Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world.

4 You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.

5 They are of the world. Therefore they speak as of the world, and the world hears them.

6 We are of God. He who knows God hears us; he who is not of God does not hear us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

Knowing God Through Love

7 Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.

8 He who does not love does not know God, for God is love.

9 In this the love of God was manifested toward us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him.

10 In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

Seeing God Through Love

12 No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God abides in us, and His love has been perfected in us.

3:14 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text omits his brother. 3:19 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text reads we shall know. 3:23 <sup>a</sup>M-Text omits us. 4:3 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text omits that and Christ has come in the flesh.

LIFE LESSONS

> 3:20 — For if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.

Believers who, more than anything else, want to obey and please God usually have tender consciences. Sometimes those consciences can condemn us—but “The Spirit Himself bears witness . . . that we are children of God” (Rom. 8:16).

> 4:1 — Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

Luke called the Berean Jews “fair-minded” because after Paul preached to them, they “searched the Scriptures daily to find out whether these things were so” (Acts 17:11). We are to “Test all things; hold fast what is good” (1 Thess. 5:21).

> 4:4 — You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.

Anytime we resist some temptation, overcome some spiritual challenge, or triumph in a contest of faith, we do so because God's Spirit lives in us. We move ahead in a walk with God by relying on His power, not ours.

> 4:8 — He who does not love does not know God, for God is love.

To be transformed into the image of Christ—God's ultimate goal for us—means to increasingly reflect His loving character in our behavior and attitudes. Therefore if we are not becoming more loving, we have taken a wrong turn somewhere.

13 By this we know that we abide in Him, and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit.

14 And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world.

15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God in him.

The Consummation of Love

17 Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as He is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love.

19 We love Him<sup>a</sup> because He first loved us.

Obedience by Faith

➤ 20 If someone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can<sup>a</sup> he love God whom he has not seen?

21 And this commandment we have from Him: that he who loves God must love his brother also.

5 Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and everyone who loves Him who begot also loves him who is begotten of Him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep His commandments.

➤ 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome.

* 4 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our<sup>a</sup> faith.

5 Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

The Certainty of God's Witness

6 This is He who came by water and blood—Jesus Christ; not only by water, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness on earth:<sup>a</sup> the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree as one.

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for this is the witness of God which<sup>a</sup> He has testified of His Son.

10 He who believes in the Son of God has the witness in himself; he who does not believe God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed the testimony that God has given of His Son.

11 And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son.

12 He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

13 These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life,<sup>a</sup> and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God.

Confidence and Compassion in Prayer

14 Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us.

15 And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of Him.

16 If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin which does not lead to death, he will ask, and He will give him life for those who commit sin not leading to death. There is sin leading to death. I do not say that he should pray about that.

17 All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin not leading to death.

4:19 aNU-Text omits Him. 4:20 aNU-Text reads he cannot.

5:4 aM-Text reads your. 5:8 aNU-Text and M-Text omit the words from in heaven (verse 7) through on earth (verse 8). Only four or five very late manuscripts contain these words in Greek.

5:9 aNU-Text reads God, that. 5:13 aNU-Text omits the rest of this verse.

LIFE LESSONS

Love for God is not merely a warm sentiment or a pleasant feeling; it is a living, active force that changes who we are. Jesus Himself forever connected love for God with love for people (Mat. 22:37–40).

➤ 5:3 — For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome.

Only when we try to obey God through our own power do His commandments feel burdensome. When we rely on His Spirit to enable us to do what we can't, we find great joy in obedience.

➤ 5:12 — He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

Have you asked the Lord Jesus Christ to come into your heart through faith, forgive you of your sins and give you an eternal home in heaven? If you have, you have life; if you haven't, you don't.

Knowing the True—Rejecting the False

18 We know that whoever is born of God does not sin; but he who has been born of God keeps himself,<sup>a</sup> and the wicked one does not touch him.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies under the sway of the wicked one.

20 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us an understanding, that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

5:18 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text reads him.

---

➤ 5:20 — And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us an understanding, that we may know Him who is true . . .

God helps us to grasp His Word, not merely so we can amass an impressive body of religious knowledge, but so that we can come to know, love, obey, and enjoy the God of the universe.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF

JOHN

Greeting the Elect Lady The Elder,

To the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all those who have known the truth,

➤ 2 because of the truth which abides in us and will be with us forever:

3 Grace, mercy, and peace will be with you<sup>a</sup> from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

Walk in Christ's Commandments

4 I rejoiced greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, as we received commandment from the Father.

➤ 5 And now I plead with you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we have had from the beginning: that we love one another.

6 This is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, that as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in it.

Beware of Antichrist Deceivers

7 For many deceivers have gone out into the world who do not confess Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

8 Look to yourselves, that we<sup>a</sup> do not lose those things we worked for, but that we<sup>b</sup> may receive a full reward.

9 Whoever transgresses<sup>a</sup> and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ does not have God. He who abides in the doctrine of Christ has both the Father and the Son.

10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him into your house nor greet him;

11 for he who greets him shares in his evil deeds.

John's Farewell Greeting

12 Having many things to write to you, I did not wish to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.

LIFE LESSONS

Neither the Word of God which we have received, nor the Savior and Lord who inspired it and lives in us, will ever change or abandon us. God's truth does not alter from age to age, nor does He.

➤ 5 — And now I plead with you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we have had from the beginning: that we love one another.

To love God and to love others as we love ourselves—the core requirement of heaven has remained the same from Old Testament times, to the days of the New Testament, and on to today.

➤ 8 — Look to yourselves, that we do not lose those things we worked for, but that we may receive a full reward.

God desires to fully bless us by giving us the maximum number and quality of rewards possible—but we determine what kind of reward we will receive, based on how closely we walk with Him and thereby obey His voice.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN

*Greeting to Gaius
The Elder,*

To the beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth:

- 2 Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.
- 3 For I rejoiced greatly when brethren came and testified of the truth that is in you, just as you walk in the truth.
- 4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.<sup>a</sup>

Gaius Commended for Generosity

- 5 Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you do for the brethren and<sup>a</sup> for strangers,
- 6 who have borne witness of your love before the church. If you send them forward on their journey in a manner worthy of God, you will do well,
- 7 because they went forth for His name's sake, taking nothing from the Gentiles.
- 8 We therefore ought to receive<sup>a</sup> such, that we may become fellow workers for the truth.

Diotrephes and Demetrius

- 9 I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to have the preeminence among them, does not receive us.
- 10 Therefore, if I come, I will call to mind his deeds which he does, prating against us with malicious words. And not content with that, he himself does not receive the brethren, and forbids those who wish to, putting them out of the church.
- 11 Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. He who does good is of God, but<sup>a</sup> he who does evil has not seen God.
- 12 Demetrius has a good testimony from all, and from the truth itself. And we also bear witness, and you know that our testimony is true.

Farewell Greeting

- 13 I had many things to write, but I do not wish to write to you with pen and ink;
- 14 but I hope to see you shortly, and we shall speak face to face. Peace to you. Our friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

LIFE LESSONS

- 2 — Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.

Prayers for our physical well-being are just as legitimate as prayers for our spiritual health. God wants us to prosper in all ways that will draw our hearts closer to Him and to our fellow believers in Christ.

- 4 — I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

To “walk in truth” means to believe the Word of God and to gladly obey its instruction by drawing on the power of the Spirit. This kind of life brings great joy both to us and to our spiritual forebears.

- 9 — I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to have the preeminence among them, does not receive us.

A “me first” attitude is the polar opposite of what Jesus promised would bring health and joy to His children: “If anyone desires to be first, he shall be last of all and servant of all” (Mark 9:35).

THE EPISTLE OF JUDE

Fight! Contend! Do battle! When apostasy arises, when false teachers emerge, when the truth of God is attacked, the time has come to fight for the faith—and only believers who are spiritually “in shape” can answer the summons.

At the beginning of his brief letter, Jude focus on the believers’ common salvation. Almost immediately he feels compelled to switch themes, however, and instead challenges them to contend for the faith “which was once for all delivered to the saints” (3). Why the abrupt change? The danger was real. False teachers had crept into the church, turning God’s grace into an invitation to sin and denying “the only Lord God and our Lord Jesus Christ” (4).

Jude reminds his readers of God’s holy judgments on unbelieving Israel, disobedient angels, and wicked Sodom and Gomorrah. A gracious God will give sinners plenty of time to repent; but if they refuse, even in His grace they will suffer a decisive and devastating judgment.

In the face of such danger from false leaders and such divine judgment on unrepentant sinners, Christians should not be caught off guard. Not only must they keep themselves “in the love of God” (21), but they must also make it their business to rescue fellow believers from the deception and devastation of sin. Yes, the challenge may be great—but even greater is the God who is able to keep His children from stumbling.

The Greek title, “Of Jude,” comes from the name Ioudas, which appears in verse 1. This name, which is Judah in Hebrew and can be translated Jude or Judas, was popular in the first century because of Judas Maccabaeus (died 160 B.C.), a leader of the Jewish resistance against Syria during the Maccabean revolt.

Themes: Beware of false teachers, live for God, and depend on the grace of God to “keep you from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy” (24).

Author: Probably Jude, the brother of James.

Time: Likely between A.D. 65-80.

Structure: Jude greets his readers (1, 2), urges them to contend for the faith (3, 4), warns of false teachers (5-19), encourages them to live for God (20-23), and concludes his letter with a beautiful benediction (24, 25).

As you read Jude, watch for a few life principles that play an important part in this book:

Greeting to the Called

Jude, a bondservant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James,

To those who are called, sanctified<sup>a</sup> by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ:

2 Mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

Contend for the Faith

➤ 3 Beloved, while I was very diligent to write to you concerning our common salvation, I found it necessary to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints.

4 For certain men have crept in unnoticed, who long ago were marked out for this condemnation, ungodly men, who turn the grace of our God into lewdness and deny the only Lord God<sup>a</sup> and our Lord Jesus Christ.

Old and New Apostates

➤ 5 But I want to remind you, though you once knew this, that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe.

6 And the angels who did not keep their proper domain, but left their own abode, He has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of the great day;

7 as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them in a similar manner to these, having given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these dreamers defile the flesh, reject authority, and speak evil of dignitaries.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, in contending with the devil, when he disputed about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him a reviling accusation, but said, "The Lord rebuke you!"

10 But these speak evil of whatever they do not know; and whatever they know naturally, like brute beasts, in these things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe to them! For they have gone in the way of Cain, have run greedily in the error of Balaam for profit, and perished in the rebellion of Korah.

Apostates Depraved and Doomed

12 These are spots in your love feasts, while they feast with you without fear, serving only themselves. They are clouds without water, carried about<sup>a</sup> by the winds; late autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, pulled up by the roots; 13 raging waves of the sea, foaming up their own shame; wandering stars for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever.

14 Now Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about these men also, saying, "Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of His saints,

15 "to execute judgment on all, to convict all who are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have committed in an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him."

Apostates Predicted

16 These are grumblers, complainers, walking according to their own lusts; and they mouth great swelling words, flattering people to gain advantage.

17 But you, beloved, remember the words which were spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ:

18 how they told you that there would be mockers in the last time who would walk according to their own ungodly lusts.

Maintain Your Life with God

20 But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit,

21 keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

LIFE LESSONS

*T*he gospel of Jesus Christ does not change. Since He is the same yesterday, today, and forever (Heb. 13:8), so His gospel remains eternally the same. And it is worth fighting for, since through it alone we find eternal life.

➤ 5 — I want to remind you, though you once knew this, that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe.

*H*ere we see both the goodness and severity of God, side-by-side. The Lord showed His goodness in rescuing the Israelites from Egyptian slavery, but His severity in punishing their stubborn disobedience and rebellion.

➤ 18 — . . . they told you that there would be mockers in the last time who would walk according to their own ungodly lusts.

*A*s the return of Jesus draws nearer, we will see an increase in those who mock genuine faith in Jesus. They will make vicious fun of believers and hold them up to ridicule—just as Jesus' enemies mocked Him.

22 And on some have compassion, making a distinction;<sup>a</sup>
23 but others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire,<sup>a</sup> hating even the garment defiled by the flesh.

Glory to God

- 24 Now to Him who is able to keep you<sup>a</sup> from stumbling,
And to present you faultless
Before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy,
25 To God our Savior,<sup>a</sup>

Who alone is wise,<sup>b</sup>
Be glory and majesty,
Dominion and power,<sup>c</sup>
Both now and forever.
Amen.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 24 — Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy . . .

While God asks us to cooperate with Him in the process of sanctification, it is He who conforms us to the image of Jesus by His power and infinite wisdom. That is why we can joyfully anticipate our total transformation.

THE REVELATION

OF JESUS CHRIST

Just as Genesis is the book of beginnings, so Revelation is the book of completion. In it, we see how God finalizes the divine program of redemption and vindicates His holy name before all creation.

Although the Gospels and Epistles contain numerous prophecies, only Revelation among all the New Testament books focuses primarily on prophetic events. It borrows heavily from Old Testament symbols and passages, and seems to have a special connection to the Book of Daniel. Because of this potent imagery, it is often difficult to know in Revelation when the author is speaking literally and when he is speaking symbolically.

Revelation also features several high moments of worship in which the residents of heaven and the saints of God praise the Lord for His holy character and righteous judgments. These extraordinary times of worship are usually presented as joyful songs of praise (see Rev. 4:8–11; 5:8–14; 7:9–12; 11:15–18; 15:2–4; 16:5–7; 19:1–7).

The title of this book in the Greek text is Apokalypsis Ioannou, “Revelation of John.” It is also known as the Apocalypse, a transliteration of the word apokalypsis, meaning “unveiling,” “disclosure,” or “revelation.” Thus the book unveils what otherwise could not be known. A better title comes from the first verse, the “Revelation of Jesus Christ.” This could be taken as a revelation that came from Christ, or as a revelation about Christ; both are appropriate.

Revelation was originally written to seven local churches in Asia Minor (modern Turkey), but its message applies to all Christians everywhere. Jesus is coming again in great power and glory, and His certain return should motivate us every day to Spirit-filled, loving action on His behalf.

Theme: Revelation centers around awesome visions and extraordinary symbols of the resurrected Christ, who alone has authority to judge the earth, to remake it, and to rule it in righteousness.

Author: The apostle John wrote Revelation during his exile on the island of Patmos.

Date: Most scholars believe the book was written around A.D. 90–95.

Structure: Revelation starts out with a vision of Jesus Christ (chapter 1), followed by a message from Him to the seven churches in Asia Minor (chapters 2, 3), followed by another vision of Jesus (chapters 4, 5). The rest of the book employs difficult symbolism and startling imagery to picture the final triumph of good over evil.

As you read Revelation, watch for several life principles that play an important role in this book:

30. An eager anticipation of the Lord’s return keeps us living productively. See Revelation 1:3; 21:6–8; 22:7, 12–14; pages 1492, 1510–1511, 1513.

21. Obedience always brings blessing. See Revelation 3:3; 12:17; 14:12; pages 1494, 1502, 1504.

7. The dark moments of our life will last only so long as is necessary for God to accomplish His purpose in us. See Revelation 6:9–11; page 1497.

6. You reap what you sow, more than you sow, and later than you sow. See Revelation 16:6; 22:12; pages 1505, 1513.

Introduction and Benediction

1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show His servants—things which must shortly take place. And He sent and signified it by His angel to His servant John,

2 who bore witness to the word of God, and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, to all things that he saw.

* 3 Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written in it; for the time is near.

Greeting the Seven Churches

➤ 4 John, to the seven churches which are in Asia:

Grace to you and peace from Him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne,

➤ 5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler over the kings of the earth. To Him who loved us and washed<sup>a</sup> us from our sins in His own blood,

6 and has made us kings<sup>a</sup> and priests to His God and Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him, even they who pierced Him. And all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him. Even so, Amen.

8 “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End,”<sup>a</sup> says the Lord,<sup>b</sup> “who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.”

Vision of the Son of Man

9 I, John, both<sup>a</sup> your brother and companion in the tribulation and kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos for the word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s Day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, as of a trumpet,

11 saying, “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last,”<sup>a</sup> and, “What you see, write in a book and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia:<sup>b</sup> to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamos, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.”

12 Then I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned I saw seven golden lampstands, 13 and in the midst of the seven lampstands One like the Son of Man, clothed with a garment down to the feet and girded about the chest with a golden band.

14 His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and His eyes like a flame of fire;

15 His feet were like fine brass, as if refined in a furnace, and His voice as the sound of many waters;

16 He had in His right hand seven stars, out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword, and His countenance was like the sun shining in its strength.

17 And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead. But He laid His right hand on me, saying to me,<sup>a</sup> “Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last.

18 “I am He who lives, and was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. Amen. And I have the keys of Hades and of Death.

19 “Write<sup>a</sup> the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will take place after this.

20 “The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands which you saw<sup>a</sup> are the seven churches.

The Loveless Church

2 “To the angel of the church of Ephesus write,

“These things says He who holds the seven stars in His right hand, who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands:

1:5 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text reads loves us and freed; M-Text reads loves us and washed. 1:6 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read a kingdom.

1:8 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text omit the Beginning and the End.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 1:4 — . . . Grace to you and peace . . .

“Grace” was a typical Greek greeting of the first century, while “peace” served as the typical Hebrew greeting. The author thus lets his readers know that this book is for everyone, Jew and Gentile alike.

➤ 1:5 — . . . Jesus Christ . . . the firstborn from the dead . . .

Several individuals in the Bible, before Jesus, had been raised from the dead. But all of them—the Shunam-mite’s son (2 Kin. 4:35), Jairus’ daughter (Mark 5:42), Lazarus (John 11:44)—died later. Jesus conquered death, never to die again.

The majestic, glorious appearance of the unveiled Christ so overwhelmed John that he fainted. We must never forget that our Savior and Friend is also our Lord, Master, King, and Sovereign.

- 2 "I know your works, your labor, your patience, and that you cannot bear those who are evil. And you have tested those who say they are apostles and are not, and have found them liars;
- 3 "and you have persevered and have patience, and have labored for My name's sake and have not become weary.
- 4 "Nevertheless I have this against you, that you have left your first love.
- 5 "Remember therefore from where you have fallen; repent and do the first works, or else I will come to you quickly and remove your lampstand from its place—unless you repent.
- 6 "But this you have, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.
- 7 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give to eat from the tree of life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of God."

The Persecuted Church

8 "And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write,

"These things says the First and the Last, who was dead, and came to life:

9 "I know your works, tribulation, and poverty (but you are rich); and I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.

- 10 "Do not fear any of those things which you are about to suffer. Indeed, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.

11 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes shall not be hurt by the second death."

The Compromising Church

12 "And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write,

"These things says He who has the sharp two-edged sword:

13 "I know your works, and where you dwell, where Satan's throne is. And you hold fast to My name, and did not deny My faith even in the days in which Antipas was My faithful martyr, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells.

14 "But I have a few things against you, because you have there those who hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality.

15 "Thus you also have those who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.<sup>a</sup>

16 "Repent, or else I will come to you quickly and will fight against them with the sword of My mouth.

17 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give some of the hidden manna to eat. And I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written which no one knows except him who receives it."

The Corrupt Church

18 "And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write,

"These things says the Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet like fine brass:

19 "I know your works, love, service, faith,<sup>a</sup> and your patience; and as for your works, the last are more than the first.

2:15 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read likewise for which thing I hate.

2:19 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read faith, service.

LIFE LESSONS

- 2:2 — "I know your works, your labor, your patience . . ."

We may sometimes feel as though we toil in anonymity and that our labors go unnoticed and unappreciated. Remember, Jesus notices everything. He sees both our work and our attitude as we work. And He remembers.

- 2:3 — "... you have persevered and have patience, and have labored for My name's sake and have not become weary."

The work Jesus gives every one of us to do can feel taxing and almost unending. To complete our assignment takes both perseverance and patience. Only when we labor in His strength can we avoid complete weariness.

- 2:4 — "Nevertheless I have this against you, that you have left your first love."

God created us for an intimate relationship with Himself, and developing that relationship must always remain our top priority. Working for God must never replace loving God.

- 2:10 — "Do not fear any of those things which you are about to suffer. Indeed, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested . . ."

Obedience always brings blessing, but it may first bring suffering. God allows Satan to persecute some believers in order to test them and refine them. Satan means it for evil, but God means it for good.

- 2:16 — "Repent, or else I will come to you quickly and will fight against them with the sword of My mouth."

No one should ever imagine that the unconditional love of God means that He will never discipline His unrepentant children. Jesus uses strong language here to remind us that He expects us to represent Him well.

20 "Nevertheless I have a few things against you, because you allow<sup>a</sup> that woman<sup>b</sup> Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and seduce<sup>c</sup> My servants to commit sexual immorality and eat things sacrificed to idols.

21 "And I gave her time to repent of her sexual immorality, and she did not repent.<sup>a</sup>

22 "Indeed I will cast her into a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of their<sup>a</sup> deeds.

➤ 23 "I will kill her children with death, and all the churches shall know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts. And I will give to each one of you according to your works.

24 "Now to you I say, and<sup>a</sup> to the rest in Thyatira, as many as do not have this doctrine, who have not known the depths of Satan, as they say, I will<sup>b</sup> put on you no other burden.

25 "But hold fast what you have till I come.

26 "And he who overcomes, and keeps My works until the end, to him I will give power over the nations—

27<sup>c</sup> He shall rule them with a rod of iron; They shall be dashed to pieces like the potter's vessels<sup>a</sup>—

as I also have received from My Father;

28 "and I will give him the morning star.

29 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

The Dead Church

3 "And to the angel of the church in Sardis write,

"These things says He who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: "I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead.

2 "Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die, for I have not found your works perfect before God.<sup>a</sup>

3 "Remember therefore how you have received and heard; hold fast and repent. Therefore if you will not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you.

4 "You<sup>a</sup> have a few names even in Sardis who have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with Me in white, for they are worthy.

5 "He who overcomes shall be clothed in white garments, and I will not blot out his name from the Book of Life; but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels.

6 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

The Faithful Church

7 "And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write,

"These things says He who is holy, He who is true, "He who has the key of David, He who opens and no one shuts, and shuts and no one opens"<sup>a</sup>:

8 "I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it;<sup>a</sup> for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name.

9 "Indeed I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie—indeed I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you.

10 "Because you have kept My command to persevere, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.

11 "Behold,<sup>a</sup> I am coming quickly! Hold fast what you have, that no one may take your crown.

12 "He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he shall go out no more. I will write on him the name of My God and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God. And I will write on him My new name.

13 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

2:20 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read I have against you that you tolerate. <sup>b</sup>M-Text reads your wife Jezebel. <sup>c</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read and teaches and seduces. 2:21 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read time to repent, and she does not want to repent of her sexual immorality. 2:22 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read her. 2:24 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text omit and. <sup>b</sup>NU-Text and M-Text omit will. 2:27 <sup>a</sup>Psalms 2:9 3:2 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read My God. 3:4 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read Nevertheless you have a few names in Sardis. 3:7 <sup>a</sup>Isaiah 22:22 3:8 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read which no one can shut. 3:11 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text omit Behold.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 2:23 — "I will kill her children with death, and all the churches shall know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts."

We reap what we sow. Paul says that if we sow to the flesh, we will from the flesh reap "corruption" (Gal. 6:8). Jesus knows exactly what thoughts we harbor in our minds and hearts, and He responds accordingly.

➤ 3:8 — "See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name."

We do not have to be mighty conquerors or giant-killers to take advantage of the open doors of opportunity that God sets before us; a "little strength" is plenty when we obey His Word and honor His Son.

The Lukewarm Church

14 "And to the angel of the church of the Laodiceans<sup>a</sup> write,

"These things says the Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Beginning of the creation of God:

16 "So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot,<sup>a</sup> I will vomit you out of My mouth.

17 "Because you say, 'I am rich, have become wealthy, and have need of nothing'—and do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked—

18 "I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see.

20 "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me.

21 "To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne.

22 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."'"

The Throne Room of Heaven

4 After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a trumpet speaking with me, saying, "Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this."

2 Immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne set in heaven, and One sat on the throne.

3 And He who sat there was<sup>a</sup> like a jasper and a sardius stone in appearance; and there was a rainbow around the throne, in appearance like an emerald.

4 Around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white robes; and they had crowns<sup>a</sup> of gold on their heads.

5 And from the throne proceeded lightnings, thunderings, and voices.<sup>a</sup> Seven lamps of fire were burning before the throne, which are the<sup>b</sup> seven Spirits of God.

6 Before the throne there was<sup>a</sup> a sea of glass, like crystal. And in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four living creatures full of eyes in front and in back.

7 The first living creature was like a lion, the second living creature like a calf, the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle.

8 The four living creatures, each having six wings, were full of eyes around and within. And they do not rest day or night, saying:

"Holy, holy, holy,"<sup>a</sup>

Lord God Almighty,

Who was and is and is to come!"

9 Whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to Him who sits on the throne, who lives forever and ever,

10 the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne and worship Him who lives forever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying:

11 "You are worthy, O Lord,"<sup>a</sup>

To receive glory and honor and power;

For You created all things,

And by Your will they exist<sup>b</sup> and were created."

3:14 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read in Laodicea. 3:16 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read hot nor cold. 4:3 <sup>a</sup>M-Text omits And He who sat there was (which makes the description in verse 3 modify the throne rather than God).

4:8 <sup>a</sup>M-Text has holy nine times. 4:11 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read our Lord and God.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 3:15 — "I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I could wish you were cold or hot."

Jesus tells the smug and self-satisfied members of the Laodicean church that they are essentially useless to Him. They had chosen comfort over spiritual combat, and their complacency nauseated Jesus.

➤ 3:19 — "As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten."

Nobody likes to be rebuked or chastened; but the presence of these things, when necessary, indicates not a lack of love, but its fullness. Jesus rebukes us because it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness" (Heb. 12:11).

➤ 4:8 — And they do not rest day or night, saying: "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!"

In a sense, the whole Book of Revelation proceeds out of this verse. God judges the earth and every individual in it on the basis of His holiness, and He can tell us what is coming because He inhabits eternity.

➤ 4:11 — "You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power; for You created all things, and by Your will they exist and were created."

As the Creator, God is worthy of all praise and adoration. He has a special concern for judging those who destroy His creation (Rev. 11:18), for that creation was meant to display His glory.

The Lamb Takes the Scroll

5 And I saw in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a scroll written inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals.

2 Then I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the scroll and to loose its seals?"

3 And no one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll, or to look at it.

4 So I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open and read<sup>a</sup> the scroll, or to look at it.

5 But one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the scroll and to loose<sup>a</sup> its seven seals."

6 And I looked, and behold,<sup>a</sup> in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as though it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent out into all the earth.

7 Then He came and took the scroll out of the right hand of Him who sat on the throne.

Worthy Is the Lamb

8 Now when He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

9 And they sang a new song, saying:

"You are worthy to take the scroll,
And to open its seals;
For You were slain,
And have redeemed us to God by Your blood

Out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation,

10 And have made us<sup>a</sup> kings<sup>b</sup> and priests to our God;

And we<sup>c</sup> shall reign on the earth."

11 Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands,
12 saying with a loud voice:

"Worthy is the Lamb who was slain
To receive power and riches and wisdom,
And strength and honor and glory and blessing!"

13 And every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, I heard saying:

"Blessing and honor and glory and power
Be to Him who sits on the throne,
And to the Lamb, forever and ever!"<sup>a</sup>

14 Then the four living creatures said, "Amen!" And the twenty-four<sup>a</sup> elders fell down and worshiped Him who lives forever and ever.<sup>b</sup>

First Seal: The Conqueror

6 Now I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals;<sup>a</sup> and I heard one of the four living creatures saying with a voice like thunder, "Come and see."

2 And I looked, and behold, a white horse. He who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

5:4 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text omit and read. 5:5 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text omit to loose. 5:6 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read I saw in the midst . . . a Lamb standing. 5:10 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read them. <sup>b</sup>NU-Text reads a kingdom. <sup>c</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read they. 5:13 <sup>a</sup>M-Text adds Amen. 5:14 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text omit twenty-four. <sup>b</sup>NU-Text and M-Text omit Him who lives forever and ever. 6:1 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read seven seals.

LIFE LESSONS

> 5:4 — So I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open and read the scroll, or to look at it.

Buddha could not open the scroll. Socrates could not open the scroll. Confucius could not open the scroll. Only one person, the risen Son of God, could open the scroll. Jesus is unique and superior to all.

> 5:5 — "Do not weep. Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed . . ."

Jesus prevails when no one else can. As a Lamb He took our sins upon Himself, but as a Lion He triumphs over all opposition. Therefore we do not have to weep, for ultimate victory is assured.

> 5:9, 10 — "You were slain, and have redeemed us to God by Your blood out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation . . ."

God does not play favorites. He searches for men and women, boys and girls, to redeem from every ethnic group, race, and language subculture from throughout the world. He is truly the God of all the earth.

> 5:13 — "Blessing and honor and glory and power be to Him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb, forever and ever!"

Throughout the Book of Revelation we see the Son and the Father honored and worshiped side-by-side. We see this even with titles; "the Alpha and the Omega" can refer to the Father (1:8) and to the Son (22:13).

Second Seal: Conflict on Earth

3 When He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come and see."<sup>a</sup>

➤ 4 Another horse, fiery red, went out. And it was granted to the one who sat on it to take peace from the earth, and that people should kill one another; and there was given to him a great sword.

Third Seal: Scarcity on Earth

5 When He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come and see." So I looked, and behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A quart<sup>a</sup> of wheat for a denarius,<sup>b</sup> and three quarts of barley for a denarius; and do not harm the oil and the wine."

Fourth Seal: Widespread Death on Earth

7 When He opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come and see."

8 So I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And the name of him who sat on it was Death, and Hades followed with him. And power was given to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword, with hunger, with death, and by the beasts of the earth.

Fifth Seal: The Cry of the Martyrs

➤ 9 When He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the testimony which they held.

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, O Lord, holy and true, until You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?"

11 Then a white robe was given to each of them; and it was said to them that they should rest a little while longer, until both the number of their fellow servants and their brethren, who would be killed as they were, was completed.

Sixth Seal: Cosmic Disturbances

12 I looked when He opened the sixth seal, and behold,<sup>a</sup> there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon<sup>b</sup> became like blood.

13 And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its late figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind.

14 Then the sky receded as a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved out of its place.

15 And the kings of the earth, the great men, the rich men, the commanders,<sup>a</sup> the mighty men, every slave and every free man, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains,

16 and said to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb!"

The Sealed of Israel

7 After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree.

2 Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea,

3 saying, "Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads."

<sup>b</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read the whole moon. 6:15 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read the commanders, the rich men.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 6:4 — And it was granted to the one who sat on it to take peace from the earth, and that people should kill one another; and there was given to him a great sword.

The staggering violence that "the beast" unleashes on the earth may make it seem as though God has lost control, but in fact, God is the one who "grants" him the power to do his wicked work. God still rules.

➤ 6:9 — I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the testimony which they held.

Godly people have always died for the faith. From Abel (Gen. 4:8) at the beginning to Antipas (Rev. 2:13) and these unnamed martyrs at the end of time, God sometimes requires that His people sacrifice their lives for Him.

➤ 6:17 — "For the great day of His wrath has come, and who is able to stand?"

Judgment finally comes when repentance doesn't. Note that it is the ungodly who make this statement—they recognize God's hand—and yet they refuse to repent. Better to kneel in repentance than fall in judgment!

➤ 7:3 — "Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads."

God knows how to protect His children even in the most catastrophic of times. The servants who are "sealed" here are all safe and well at the end (Rev. 14:1–5; see also Ezek. 9:4–6).

4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed. One hundred and forty-four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel were sealed:

- 5 of the tribe of Judah twelve thousand were sealed;<sup>a</sup>
- of the tribe of Reuben
twelve thousand were sealed;
- of the tribe of Gad
twelve thousand were sealed;
- 6 of the tribe of Asher
twelve thousand were sealed;
- of the tribe of Naphtali
twelve thousand were sealed;
- of the tribe of Manasseh
twelve thousand were sealed;
- 7 of the tribe of Simeon
twelve thousand were sealed;
- of the tribe of Levi
twelve thousand were sealed;
- of the tribe of Issachar
twelve thousand were sealed;
- 8 of the tribe of Zebulun
twelve thousand were sealed;
- of the tribe of Joseph
twelve thousand were sealed;
- of the tribe of Benjamin
twelve thousand were sealed.

A Multitude from the Great Tribulation

- 9 After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no one could number, of all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, with palm branches in their hands,
- 10 and crying out with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"
- 11 All the angels stood around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God,
- 12 saying:

"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom, Thanksgiving and honor and power and might,
Be to our God forever and ever.
Amen."

13 Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, "Who are these arrayed in white robes, and where did they come from?"

14 And I said to him, "Sir,<sup>a</sup> you know." So he said to me, "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."

15 "Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple. And He who sits on the throne will dwell among them."

16 "They shall neither hunger anymore nor thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any heat;

17 "for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to living fountains of waters.<sup>a</sup> And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Seventh Seal: Prelude to the Seven Trumpets

8 When He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 Then another angel, having a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. He was given much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God from the angel's hand.

7:5 <sup>a</sup>In NU-Text and M-Text were sealed is stated only in verses 5a and 8c; the words are understood in the remainder of the passage. 7:14 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read My lord.

7:17 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read to fountains of the waters of life.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 7:9 — . . . a great multitude which no one could number, of all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes . . .

God not only redeems people from every imaginable point of origin and background, He also redeems multitudes beyond count. His grace reaches into every corner of the world.

➤ 7:17 — " . . . And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

This line is repeated later in Revelation (see also Rev. 21:4). It is as if God wants us to remember that though our tears will flow, yet He will personally comfort us. He will delegate this task to no one else.

Some of God's judgments and works are so awesome that the only appropriate response is reverent silence. "But the LORD is in His holy temple. Let all the earth keep silence for Him" (Hab. 2:20).

➤ 8:4 — And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God from the angel's hand.

God accepts the prayers of His faithful people and treats them like sacrifices—offerings to Him that cost the giver something and which honor Him. In prayer, we admit our weakness and declare God's strength.

5 Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth. And there were noises, thunderings, lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 So the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

First Trumpet: Vegetation Struck

7 The first angel sounded: And hail and fire followed, mingled with blood, and they were thrown to the earth.<sup>a</sup> And a third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.

Second Trumpet: The Seas Struck

8 Then the second angel sounded: And something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood.

9 And a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

Third Trumpet: The Waters Struck

10 Then the third angel sounded: And a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water.

11 The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the water, because it was made bitter.

Fourth Trumpet: The Heavens Struck

12 Then the fourth angel sounded: And a third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. A third of the day did not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I looked, and I heard an angel<sup>a</sup> flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!"

Fifth Trumpet: The Locusts from the Bottomless Pit

9 Then the fifth angel sounded: And I saw a star fallen from heaven to the earth. To him was given the key to the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit, and smoke arose out of the pit like the smoke of a great furnace. So the sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke of the pit.

3 Then out of the smoke locusts came upon the earth. And to them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 They were commanded not to harm the grass of the earth, or any green thing, or any tree, but only those men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

5 And they were not given authority to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a man.

6 In those days men will seek death and will not find it; they will desire to die, and death will flee from them.

7 The shape of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle. On their heads were crowns of something like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like lions' teeth.

9 And they had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots with many horses running into battle.

10 They had tails like scorpions, and there were stings in their tails. Their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And they had as king over them the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, but in Greek he has the name Apollyon.

Sixth Trumpet: The Angels from the Euphrates

13 Then the sixth angel sounded: And I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."

15 So the four angels, who had been prepared

8:7 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text add and a third of the earth was burned up. 8:13 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read eagle.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 8:13 — "Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!"

The judgments described in Revelation grow in intensity and scale as the book progresses. God typically employs escalating judgments to prompt repentance, until the wicked reach the point of no return.

➤ 9:6 — In those days men will seek death and will not find it; they will desire to die, and death will flee from them.

Since God does not desire the death of anyone, when necessary He will use "severe mercies" to get our attention and urge us back to Him. Even severe pain is a good thing if it keeps someone from eternal death.

➤ 9:15 — So the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released . . .

Despite the chaos on earth that the Book of Revelation describes, we still get indications throughout the book that God remains completely in charge. God has prepared these angels for a specific work at a specific time.

for the hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a third of mankind.

16 Now the number of the army of the horsemen was two hundred million; I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision: those who sat on them had breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; and the heads of the horses were like the heads of lions; and out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and brimstone.

18 By these three plagues a third of mankind was killed—by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone which came out of their mouths.

19 For their power<sup>a</sup> is in their mouth and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents, having heads; and with them they do harm.

➤ 20 But the rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and idols of gold, silver, brass, stone, and wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk.

21 And they did not repent of their murders or their sorceries<sup>a</sup> or their sexual immorality or their thefts.

The Mighty Angel with the Little Book

10 I saw still another mighty angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud. And a rainbow was on his head, his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire.

2 He had a little book open in his hand. And he set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land,

3 and cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars. When he cried out, seven thunders uttered their voices.

➤ 4 Now when the seven thunders uttered their voices,<sup>a</sup> I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me,<sup>b</sup> “Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them.”

5 The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised up his hand<sup>c</sup> to heaven

6 and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there should be delay no longer,

7 but in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants the prophets.

John Eats the Little Book

8 Then the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, “Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the earth.”

9 So I went to the angel and said to him, “Give me the little book.” And he said to me, “Take and eat it; and it will make your stomach bitter, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth.”

10 Then I took the little book out of the angel’s hand and ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. But when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter.

11 And he<sup>a</sup> said to me, “You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings.”

The Two Witnesses

11 Then I was given a reed like a measuring rod. And the angel stood,<sup>a</sup> saying, “Rise and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship there.

2 “But leave out the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, for it has been given to the Gentiles. And they will tread the holy city underfoot for forty-two months.

10:5 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read right hand. 10:11 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text read they. 11:1 <sup>a</sup>NU-Text and M-Text omit And the angel stood.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 9:20 — But the rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands . . .

Why does the Book of Revelation repeatedly tell us that the wicked did not repent? First, because it shows the necessity of God’s judgment. Second, because it shows God’s desire that they repent and live.

➤ 10:4 — I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, “Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them.”

God reveals to us the things He wants us to know. He does not reveal details about the future to satisfy our curiosity, but to motivate and equip us to live for Him today with passion, holiness, and joy.

History is moving relentlessly to a predetermined conclusion. We may not know what will happen from day to day, but we already know how everything will turn out. God triumphs, and we triumph with Him.

➤ 10:9 — And he said to me, “Take and eat it; and it will make your stomach bitter, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth.”

It is always a joy to read and proclaim the Word of God, but some of that Word—like the passages describing catastrophic divine judgment—give no pleasure either to the prophets or to the Lord.

3 "And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth."

4 These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands standing before the God<sup>a</sup> of the earth.

5 And if anyone wants to harm them, fire proceeds from their mouth and devours their enemies. And if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this manner.

➤ 6 These have power to shut heaven, so that no rain falls in the days of their prophecy; and they have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire.

The Witnesses Killed

➤ 7 When they finish their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the bottomless pit will make war against them, overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our<sup>a</sup> Lord was crucified.

9 Then those from the peoples, tribes, tongues, and nations will see their dead bodies three-and-a-half days, and not allow<sup>a</sup> their dead bodies to be put into graves.

10 And those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them, make merry, and send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

The Witnesses Resurrected

11 Now after the three-and-a-half days the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them.

12 And they<sup>a</sup> heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." And they ascended to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies saw them.

➤ 13 In the same hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. In the earthquake seven thousand people were killed, and the rest were afraid and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

Seventh Trumpet: The Kingdom Proclaimed

15 Then the seventh angel sounded: And there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms<sup>a</sup> of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever!"

16 And the twenty-four elders who sat before God on their thrones fell on their faces and worshiped God,

17 saying:

"We give You thanks, O Lord God Almighty,

The One who is and who was and who is to come,<sup>a</sup>

Because You have taken Your great power and reigned.

18 The nations were angry, and Your wrath has come,

And the time of the dead, that they should be judged,

And that You should reward Your servants the prophets and the saints,

And those who fear Your name, small and great,

And should destroy those who destroy the earth."

19 Then the temple of God was opened in heaven, and the ark of His covenant<sup>a</sup> was seen in His temple. And there were lightnings, noises, thunderings, an earthquake, and great hail.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 11:6 — These have power to shut heaven . . . and they have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire.

The miracles described here inescapably remind us of the wonders performed through Elijah (1 Kin. 17:1) and Moses (Ex. 9:14). The same God who empowered them will demonstrate His power once again.

➤ 11:7 — When they finish their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the bottomless pit will make war against them, overcome them, and kill them.

We are immortal until our time comes to go to the Father. The "two witnesses" described here cannot be touched by their enemies until they have completed every task assigned to them by God.

➤ 11:13 — In the earthquake seven thousand people were killed, and the rest were afraid and gave glory to the God of heaven.

This is the only time in Revelation that a tragedy prompts those who survive to give "glory" to God. Tragedies are terrible things, but God wants to use even them to rescue people from a far worse spiritual catastrophe.

➤ 11:15 — "The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever!"

The time is coming when every square inch of this planet will be illuminated by the glory of Christ's everlasting rule. "For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea" (Is. 11:9).

The Woman, the Child, and the Dragon

12 Now a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a garland of twelve stars.

2 Then being with child, she cried out in labor and in pain to give birth.

➤ 4 His tail drew a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to give birth, to devour her Child as soon as it was born.

5 She bore a male Child who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. And her Child was caught up to God and His throne.

6 Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

Satan Thrown Out of Heaven

8 but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them<sup>a</sup> in heaven any longer.

➤ 9 So the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 Then I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, "Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down.

➤ 11 "And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death.

12 "Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and the sea! For the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, because he knows that he has a short time."

The Woman Persecuted

13 Now when the dragon saw that he had been cast to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male Child.

14 But the woman was given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, where she is nourished for a time and times and half a time, from the presence of the serpent.

15 So the serpent spewed water out of his mouth like a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood.

16 But the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the flood which the dragon had spewed out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.<sup>a</sup>

The Beast from the Sea

13 Then I<sup>a</sup> stood on the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast rising up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns,<sup>b</sup> and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads a blasphemous name.

2 Now the beast which I saw was like a leopard, his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority.

LIFE LESSONS

Some commentators believe the "stars" represent angels and that Satan convinced a third of all the angels God had created to rebel against Him. In any case, the devil has great power to do evil, and we must resist him (1 Pet. 5:9).

➤ 12:9 — So the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

Some interpreters believe this text describes a future time; others believe it describes something that has already happened. In either case, it points to the superior power of God and His ultimate triumph over evil.

➤ 12:11 — "And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony . . ."

We cannot win our battles against Satan with bombs and swords and bullets; our invincible weapons are the death of Christ and the Word of God. These weapons are "mighty in God for pulling down strongholds" (2 Cor. 10:4).

➤ 12:17 — And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

Satan has a particular hatred for Christians who obey God and who work to represent Jesus to the best of their ability, for they are the only ones who really make a difference for good in the world.

The "antichrist," the "beast," the "man of sin," the "son of perdition"—whatever we call this coming figure, he will get his power and authority directly from the devil. That means he will be cunning as well as evil.

- 3 And I saw one of his heads as if it had been mortally wounded, and his deadly wound was healed. And all the world marveled and followed the beast.
- 4 So they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?"
- 5 And he was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and he was given authority to continue<sup>a</sup> for forty-two months.
- 6 Then he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, His tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven.
- 7 It was granted to him to make war with the saints and to overcome them. And authority was given him over every tribe,<sup>a</sup> tongue, and nation.
- 8 All who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.
- 9 If anyone has an ear, let him hear.
- 10 He who leads into captivity shall go into captivity; he who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

The Beast from the Earth

- 11 Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon.
- 12 And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.
- 13 He performs great signs, so that he even makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men.
- 14 And he deceives those<sup>a</sup> who dwell on the earth by those signs which he was granted to do in the sight of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword and lived.
- 15 He was granted power to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed.

- 16 He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads,
- 17 and that no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark or<sup>a</sup> the name of the beast, or the number of his name.
- 18 Here is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man: His number is 666.

The Lamb and the 144,000

- 14 Then I looked, and behold, a<sup>a</sup> Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him one hundred and forty-four thousand, having<sup>b</sup> His Father's name written on their foreheads.
- 2 And I heard a voice from heaven, like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of loud thunder. And I heard the sound of harpists playing their harps.
- 3 They sang as it were a new song before the throne, before the four living creatures, and the elders; and no one could learn that song except the hundred and forty-four thousand who were redeemed from the earth.
- 4 These are the ones who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These were redeemed<sup>a</sup> from among men, being firstfruits to God and to the Lamb.
- 5 And in their mouth was found no deceit,<sup>a</sup> for they are without fault before the throne of God.<sup>b</sup>

The Proclamations of Three Angels

- 6 Then I saw another angel flying in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth—to every nation, tribe, tongue, and people—
- 7 saying with a loud voice, "Fear God and <

- 13:5 — And he was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and he was given authority to continue for forty-two months.

No horror of history will compare with the antichrist's reign of terror, but the God of heaven will strictly control even the length of his rule. God remains sovereign, even when it appears He doesn't.

- 13:8 — ... the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

Even before He created Adam and Eve, God knew that they would sin and that He would respond by sending His Son to die on the cross to atone for their sin. "Known to God from eternity are all His works" (Acts 15:18).

- 13:13 — He performs great signs, so that he even makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men.

Satan cannot counterfeit all of God's miracles, but he can certainly fabricate a few. "The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders" (2 Thess. 2:9).

- 14:7 — "Fear God and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment has come . . ."

Modern believers do not often connect divine judgment with glory, but the Bible does (Ex. 14:4, 17, 18; Ezek. 28:22; 39:21; John 8:50). God reveals His majesty not only in loving acts of mercy, but also in holy acts of vengeance.

give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment has come; and worship Him who made heaven and earth, the sea and springs of water.”

8 And another angel followed, saying, “Babylon<sup>a</sup> is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she has made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.”

9 Then a third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, “If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives his mark on his forehead or on his hand,

10 “he himself shall also drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out full strength into the cup of His indignation. He shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb.

➤ 11 “And the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever; and they have no rest day or night, who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name.”

12 Here is the patience of the saints; here are those<sup>a</sup> who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.

* 13 Then I heard a voice from heaven saying to me,<sup>a</sup> “Write: ‘Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.’” “Yes,” says the Spirit, “that they may rest from their labors, and their works follow them.”

Reaping the Earth's Harvest

14 Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and on the cloud sat One like the Son of Man, having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, “Thrust in Your sickle and reap, for the time has come for You<sup>a</sup> to reap, for the harvest of the earth is ripe.”

16 So He who sat on the cloud thrust in His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

Reaping the Grapes of Wrath

17 Then another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, who had power over fire, and he cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, “Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe.”

19 So the angel thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God.

20 And the winepress was trampled outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, up to the horses' bridles, for one thousand six hundred furlongs.

Prelude to the Bowl Judgments

15 Then I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them the wrath of God is complete.

2 And I saw something like a sea of glass mingled with fire, and those who have the victory over the beast, over his image and over his mark<sup>a</sup> and over the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God.

3 They sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying:

“Great and marvelous are Your works,
Lord God Almighty!
Just and true are Your ways,
O King of the saints!<sup>a</sup>

4 Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name?

For You alone are holy.
For all nations shall come and worship before You,
For Your judgments have been manifested.”

5 After these things I looked, and behold,<sup>a</sup> the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened.

6 And out of the temple came the seven angels having the seven plagues, clothed in pure bright linen, and having their chests girded with golden bands.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 14:11 — “And the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever; and they have no rest day or night . . . .”

*H*ell is a place of eternal suffering and restlessness, because its doomed souls are forever separated from God, the only One who could have made them whole. “There is no peace for the wicked,” says the Lord (Is. 48:22).

➤ 15:4 — “Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy . . . .”

*O*ne day, every knee shall bow to God and every tongue confess that Jesus is Lord (Rom. 14:11; Phil. 2:10)—but some will bow willingly and joyfully, while others will bow grudgingly and in dread. But everyone will bow.

- 7 Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God who lives forever and ever.
- 8 The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power, and no one was able to enter the temple till the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.
- 16 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the bowls<sup>a</sup> of the wrath of God on the earth."

First Bowl: Loathsome Sores

- 2 So the first went and poured out his bowl upon the earth, and a foul and loathsome sore came upon the men who had the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image.

Second Bowl: The Sea Turns to Blood

- 3 Then the second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man; and every living creature in the sea died.

Third Bowl: The Waters Turn to Blood

- 4 Then the third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood.

- 5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying:

"You are righteous, O Lord,<sup>a</sup>
The One who is and who was and who is to be,<sup>b</sup>
Because You have judged these things.

- 6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets,
And You have given them blood to drink.
For<sup>b</sup> it is their just due."

- 7 And I heard another from<sup>a</sup> the altar saying, "Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments."

Fourth Bowl: Men Are Scorched

- 8 Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and power was given to him to scorch men with fire.

- 9 And men were scorched with great heat, and they blasphemed the name of God who has power over these plagues; and they did not repent and give Him glory.

Fifth Bowl: Darkness and Pain

- 10 Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom became full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues because of the pain.

- 11 They blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds.

Sixth Bowl: Euphrates Dried Up

- 12 Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, so that the way of the kings from the east might be prepared.

- 13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs coming out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

- 14 For they are spirits of demons, performing signs, which go out to the kings of the earth and<sup>a</sup> of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

- 15 "Behold, I am coming as a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame."

- 16 And they gathered them together to the place called in Hebrew, Armageddon.<sup>a</sup>

Seventh Bowl: The Earth Utterly Shaken

- 17 Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!"

- 18 And there were noises and thunderings

LIFE LESSONS

- 15:8 — The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power, and no one was able to enter the temple . . .

Whenever God unveils His full majesty, His splendor overwhelms the stoutest heart and forces it into worshipful retreat. This happened with Isaiah (Is. 6:4, 5) and at the dedication of the Jerusalem temple (1 Kin. 8:10, 11).

- 16:9 — And men were scorched with great heat, and they blasphemed the name of God who has power over these plagues; and they did not repent and give Him glory.

Even today God has power over natural calamities that we commonly call "acts of God," but merely recognizing that power often does not prompt repentance. Just as often it sparks the complaint, "Why didn't He prevent it?"

- 16:11 — They blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds.

It is a curious fact that the more ungodly a culture becomes, the more "spiritual" it considers itself and the more likely its members will say things like, "I can't believe in a God who would allow such suffering."

- 16:15 — "Behold, I am coming as a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame."

We must remain ready for Christ's return, whenever He comes back. We are to keep at whatever tasks He gives us, so that "we may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming" (1 John 2:28).

and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such a mighty and great earthquake as had not occurred since men were on the earth.

19 Now the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And great Babylon was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath.

20 Then every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And great hail from heaven fell upon men, each hailstone about the weight of a talent. Men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, since that plague was exceedingly great.

The Scarlet Woman and the Scarlet Beast

17 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and talked with me, saying to me,<sup>a</sup> "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters,

2 "with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication."

3 So he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast which was full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication.<sup>a</sup>

5 And on her forehead a name was written:

MYSTERY,
BABYLON THE GREAT,
THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

➤ 6 I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marveled with great amazement.

The Meaning of the Woman and the Beast

7 But the angel said to me, "Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns.

8 "The beast that you saw was, and is not, and will ascend out of the bottomless pit and go to perdition. And those who dwell on the earth will marvel, whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.<sup>a</sup>

9 "Here is the mind which has wisdom: The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits.

10 "There are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, and the other has not yet come. And when he comes, he must continue a short time.

11 "The beast that was, and is not, is himself also the eighth, and is of the seven, and is going to perdition.

12 "The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority for one hour as kings with the beast.

13 "These are of one mind, and they will give their power and authority to the beast.

14 "These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for He is Lord of lords and King of kings; and those who are with Him are called, chosen, and faithful."

15 Then he said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues.

16 "And the ten horns which you saw on<sup>a</sup> the beast, these will hate the harlot, make her desolate and naked, eat her flesh and burn her with fire.

17 "For God has put it into their hearts to fulfill His purpose, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 17:6 — I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I marveled with great amazement.

It still shocks us today when we hear of Christians being murdered for their faith. We rightly grieve at the loss of life—but God also delights in their faithfulness and willing sacrifice.

➤ 17:14 — "These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for He is Lord of lords and King of kings . . ."

It doesn't make much sense to us as we read that anyone would so foolishly attack the Lord. Yet every time we sin, in a sense we make war against Jesus. How much more sense is there in that?

➤ 17:17 — "For God has put it into their hearts to fulfill His purpose, to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled."

The sovereignty of God extends so far that even the willing alliance of evil rulers against the Lord, actually serves God's purposes and plays right into His hand! He uses their best weapons against them.

18 "And the woman whom you saw is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth."

The Fall of Babylon the Great

18 After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily<sup>a</sup> with a loud voice, saying, "Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and has become a dwelling place of demons, a prison for every foul spirit, and a cage for every unclean and hated bird!"

3 "For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury."

4 And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues."

5 "For her sins have reached<sup>a</sup> to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities."

6 "Render to her just as she rendered to you,<sup>a</sup> and repay her double according to her works; in the cup which she has mixed, mix double for her."

7 "In the measure that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, in the same measure give her torment and sorrow; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as queen, and am no widow, and will not see sorrow.'"

8 "Therefore her plagues will come in one day—death and mourning and famine. And she will be utterly burned with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judges<sup>a</sup> her."

The World Mourns Babylon's Fall

9 "The kings of the earth who committed fornication and lived luxuriously with her will weep and lament for her, when they see the smoke of her burning."

10 "standing at a distance for fear of her torment, saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour your judgment has come.'"

11 "And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise anymore:

12 "merchandise of gold and silver, precious stones and pearls, fine linen and purple, silk and scarlet, every kind of citron wood, every kind of object of ivory, every kind of object of most precious wood, bronze, iron, and marble;

13 "and cinnamon and incense, fragrant oil and frankincense, wine and oil, fine flour and wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and bodies and souls of men."

14 "The fruit that your soul longed for has gone from you, and all the things which are rich and splendid have gone from you,<sup>a</sup> and you shall find them no more at all."

15 "The merchants of these things, who became rich by her, will stand at a distance for fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,"

16 "and saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city that was clothed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls!'"

17 "For in one hour such great riches came to nothing.' Every shipmaster, all who travel by ship, sailors, and as many as trade on the sea, stood at a distance

18 "and cried out when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What is like this great city?'"

19 "They threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and wailing, and saying, 'Alas, alas, that great city, in which all who had ships on the sea became rich by her wealth! For in one hour she is made desolate.'"

20 "Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles<sup>a</sup> and prophets, for God has avenged you on her!"

Finality of Babylon's Fall

21 Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence the great city Babylon shall be thrown down, and shall not be found anymore."

22 "The sound of harpists, musicians, flutists, and trumpeters shall not be heard in you anymore. No craftsman of any craft shall be found in you anymore, and the sound of a millstone shall not be heard in you anymore."

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 18:4 — And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues."

God does not want His people entwined with evil because He wants to bless them, not judge them. "Come out from among them and be separate, says the Lord. Do not touch what is unclean" (2 Cor. 6:17).

➤ 18:8 — "... she will be utterly burned with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judges her."

Just as God wiped out Sodom and Gomorrah with a hail of fire, so He promises to destroy the evil world system, "Babylon the great," at the time of the end. No one can restrain the Lord's hand of judgment.

ANSWERS TO LIFE'S QUESTIONS

Can the devil really make me do it?

REV 18:23

The late comedian Flip Wilson may have popularized the catchphrase, "The devil made me do it," but this excuse has always been around. We blame Satan since we know he has something to do with the temptation process.

But in fact, the devil cannot make us do anything. The Bible calls Satan a deceiver (Gen. 3:13; 2 Cor. 11:3; Rev. 18:23) and the "father of lies" (John 8:44). Satan's only power over us is through manipulation and deceit.

If the devil could actually make us do things, then he wouldn't need to go to all the trouble of deceiving us. When he dangles the right bait in front of us at the right time, our fleshly desires make it seem as though something is relentlessly drawing us toward sin; but this power does not control us. In each case we choose to disobey.

Think of it this way. Imagine yourself standing at the edge of a cliff that drops off into a deep, rocky gorge. Now suppose I walked up to you and said, "We have kidnapped a member of your family. If you refuse to jump, your relative will be brutally beaten and then killed." Have I made you jump? If you believed my story and you believed that by jumping you could save your family member, I may have made you willing to jump or even anxious to jump. But I have not made you jump. Even if you jumped and you found out on the way to the bottom that I had lied about the whole thing, I still did not make you jump. I simply tricked you into jumping. On the other hand, if I walked up behind you and pushed you, then I made you do something contrary to what you wanted to do, felt like doing, or even thought about doing.

Now think about the last time you felt tempted to sin. Did you suddenly discover that you were sinning or had sinned? Were you in the process before you ever thought about it? Or did it begin with a thought; then a feeling; then maybe a little struggle; then the actual sin?

Just as no one held Eve and forced her to bite the fruit, so no one holds you down and forces you to sin. Satan cannot make you do anything, but he will do all he can to deceive you into dishonoring God.

Heaven Exults over Babylon

19 After these things I heard<sup>a</sup> a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Alleluia! Salvation and glory and honor and power belong to the Lord<sup>b</sup> our God!

2 "For true and righteous are His judgments, because He has judged the great harlot who corrupted the earth with her fornication; and He has avenged on her the blood of His servants shed by her."

3 Again they said, "Alleluia! Her smoke rises up forever and ever!"

4 And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sat on the throne, saying, "Amen! Alleluia!"

5 Then a voice came from the throne, saying, "Praise our God, all you His servants and those who fear Him, both<sup>a</sup> small and great!"

LIFE LESSONS

> 19:5 — Then a voice came from the throne, saying, "Praise our God, all you His servants and those who fear Him, both small and great!"

Many differences separate us during most of the week—height, weight, color, social status, financial situation, intelligence, background—and yet in worship, both "small and great" approach God on the same level.

- 7 "Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready."
 8 And to her it was granted to be arrayed in fine linen, clean and bright, for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.
 9 Then he said to me, "Write: 'Blessed are those who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb!'" And he said to me, "These are the true sayings of God."
 10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "See that you do not do that! I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren who have the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

Christ on a White Horse

- 11 Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war.
 12 His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. He had<sup>a</sup> a name written that no one knew except Himself.
 13 He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God.
 14 And the armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean,<sup>a</sup> followed Him on white horses.
 15 Now out of His mouth goes a sharp<sup>a</sup> sword, that with it He should strike the nations. And He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron. He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.
 16 And He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written:

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

The Beast and His Armies Defeated

- 17 Then I saw an angel standing in the sun;

and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, "Come and gather together for the supper of the great God,"<sup>a</sup>

18 "that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all people, free<sup>a</sup> and slave, both small and great."

19 And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who sat on the horse and against His army.

20 Then the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were cast alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the rest were killed with the sword which proceeded from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse. And all the birds were filled with their flesh.

Satan Bound 1000 Years

20 Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, having the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 He laid hold of the dragon, that serpent of old, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years;

3 and he cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal on him, so that he should deceive the nations no more till the thousand years were finished. But after these things he must be released for a little while.

LIFE LESSONS

- 19:10 — I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "See that you do not do that! I am your fellow servant . . . Worship God!"

Angels have such majesty and power that human beings always feel tempted to worship them—even someone as mature and godly as John. But angels know their place. God alone deserves our worship!

- 19:11 — He . . . was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war.

Jesus told His disciples that His Father had committed all judgment to Him (John 5:22). He is perfectly suited for the role, as He not only knows us thoroughly, but also is flawlessly just, honest, and trustworthy.

- 19:16 — And He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

The Lord veiled His royal majesty during His years of earthly ministry, but God will spotlight His glory upon His return so that no one could possibly miss it: "He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him" (Rev. 1:7).

- 19:20 — These two were cast alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone.

Some teach that those who wind up in hell are annihilated, but the "beast" and "false prophet" who get thrown into the lake of fire are still there one thousand years later when Satan is judged (Rev. 20:10).

- 20:3 — . . . But after these things he must be released for a little while.

Why "must" Satan be released after his long imprisonment? Why doesn't God judge him immediately? God uses Satan to reveal the unconverted hearts of those who pretend to love God (Rev. 20:7–9). And then Satan meets his final judgment.

The Saints Reign with Christ 1000 Years

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was committed to them. Then I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God, who had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. And they lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

* 6 Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over such the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years.

Satanic Rebellion Crushed

7 Now when the thousand years have expired, Satan will be released from his prison and will go out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle, whose number is as the sand of the sea.

9 They went up on the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them.

10 The devil, who deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone where<sup>a</sup> the beast and the false prophet are. And they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

The Great White Throne Judgment

11 Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. And there was found no place for them.

> 12 And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God,<sup>a</sup> and books were opened. And another book was opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to their works, by the things which were written in the books.

13 The sea gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades delivered up the dead who were in them. And they were judged, each one according to his works.

14 Then Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.<sup>a</sup>

All Things Made New

21 Now I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away. Also there was no more sea.

2 Then I, John,<sup>a</sup> saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God.

4 "And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away."

5 Then He who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." And He said to me,<sup>a</sup> "Write, for these words are true and faithful."

6 And He said to me, "It is done!<sup>a</sup> I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely to him who thirsts.

LIFE LESSONS

> 20:12 — And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God, and books were opened . . . And the dead were judged according to their works . . .

Those who do not depend on Christ for their salvation will be judged "according to their works." Since all have sinned, and the wages of sin is death, they will all receive the wages they earned: the second death.

> 20:15 — And anyone not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire.

Those who place their faith in Jesus Christ have their names permanently written in the Lamb's Book of Life (Rev. 21:27). Those who depend on their own efforts to reach heaven will instead find themselves in the lake of fire.

> 21:3 — "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people."

The best part of heaven will not be the streets of gold, or the pearly gates, or even the happy reunions we will enjoy with believing loved ones. The best thing about heaven is the loving presence of God Himself.

> 21:5 — Then He who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new."

Our eternal home will never grow old, because God promises to make all things new. The Eternal One loves new things: new hearts (Ezek. 36:26), new songs (Is. 42:10), new heavens and a new earth (2 Pet. 3:13), new life (Rom. 6:4).

7 "He who overcomes shall inherit all things,<sup>a</sup> and I will be his God and he shall be My son.

The New Jerusalem

9 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls filled with the seven last plagues came to me<sup>a</sup> and talked with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the bride, the Lamb's wife."<sup>b</sup>

10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the great city, the holy<sup>a</sup> Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal.

12 Also she had a great and high wall with twelve gates, and twelve angels at the gates, and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west.

14 Now the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names<sup>a</sup> of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he who talked with me had a gold reed to measure the city, its gates, and its wall.

16 The city is laid out as a square; its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed: twelve thousand furlongs. Its length, breadth, and height are equal.

17 Then he measured its wall: one hundred and forty-four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of an angel.

18 The construction of its wall was of jasper; and the city was pure gold, like clear glass.

19 The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all kinds of precious stones: the first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald,

20 the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.

21 The twelve gates were twelve pearls: each individual gate was of one pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.

The Glory of the New Jerusalem

22 But I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple.

24 And the nations of those who are saved<sup>a</sup> shall walk in its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it.<sup>b</sup>

25 Its gates shall not be shut at all by day (there shall be no night there).

26 And they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it.<sup>a</sup>

27 But there shall by no means enter it anything that defiles, or causes<sup>a</sup> an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

The River of Life

22 And he showed me a pure<sup>a</sup> river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 In the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

LIFE LESSONS

➤ 21:7 — "He who overcomes shall inherit all things, and I will be his God and he shall be My son."

As the adopted children of God (Eph. 1:5), we are "heirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ;" and we overcome when we "suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together" (Rom. 8:17).

➤ 21:23 — The city had no need of the sun or of the moon to shine in it, for the glory of God illuminated it. The Lamb is its light.

We got a small hint of coming attractions when Jesus displayed a little of His glory at the Transfiguration. There, "His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light" (Matt. 17:2).

➤ 21:27 — ... there shall by no means enter it anything that defiles, or causes an abomination or a lie . . .

Sin will have no place in our eternal home. Nothing evil or wicked or immoral or foul or depraved or fiendish will ever cast a shadow there. Purity will reign and spread its ecstasies of joy everywhere.

WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT HOW GOD JUDGES AND REWARDS OUR WORK

Rev. 22:12

Though we consider the apostle Paul the greatest missionary in history, he received more lashes and stones than honorary banquets, and spent more time in jail than in mansions. How did he continue under such duress? He looked ahead to God's reward: "Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day" (2 Tim. 4:8).

Why would Moses leave the luxury of Pharaoh's palace for the harshness of the desert? Because he considered the "reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt; for he looked to the reward" (Heb. 11:26). Serving God yielded Moses a vast storehouse of heavenly reward, though it meant a lifetime of struggle.

Every act, word, and thought will be credited by Christ: "Each one will receive his own reward according to his own labor" (1 Cor. 3:8). If we seek to glorify God with a diligent and humble spirit, our laurels will multiply. If we seek merely to please others and reap their praise, then our rewards will shrink.

Rewards are not limited to the hereafter. Whenever we follow the principles of Scripture, we enjoy the blessings of obedience: "He who fears the commandment will be rewarded" (Prov. 13:13).

When Peter reminded Jesus that he had left everything behind to follow the Messiah, Christ responded, "There is no one who has left house or parents or brothers or wife or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, who shall not receive many times more in this present time, and in the age to come eternal life" (Luke 18:29, 30).

When one knows and serves God, every product of his or her life will be rewarded, either in this life or in heaven. God watches over all our ways, and He has promised to perfectly reward us. All those who "serve the Lord Christ" (Col. 3:24) will be rewarded, either positively or negatively, on the day of judgment of believers. The Christian who seeks to please God lays up treasures that can never be devalued or depleted.

AN EAGER ANTICIPATION OF THE LORD'S RETURN KEEPS US LIVING PRODUCTIVELY.

REV. 22:12

Throughout Scripture we find three admonitions given to us about the Lord's return:

1. Watch faithfully.
2. Work diligently.
3. Wait peacefully.

1. We are to watch. The Lord said repeatedly that we are to watch for His coming because we do not know the day or hour of His return (Matt. 24:42; 25:13). In Luke 21:36 Jesus gave this specific instruction: "Watch, therefore, and pray always that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man."

We are to do more than pray as we watch. We are to stand fast in the faith, with courage and strength (see 1 Cor. 16:13). We are to watch soberly, arming ourselves with faith and love and salvation (see 1 Thess. 5:8). As we watch, we are to remain especially aware of false prophets; we are to discern the spirits and to reject soundly all who do not confess that Jesus Christ is God in the flesh (see 1 John 4:1-2; 2 Peter 2:1).

Jesus spoke to John in a vision and gave this great promise to those who remain watchful: "Behold, I am coming as a thief. Blessed is he who watches . . ." (Rev. 16:15).

2. We are to work. Why does Jesus leave us here on earth after He saves us? Why aren't we born again, and then immediately taken into the Lord's presence? Because we still have work to do!

First, God calls us to win souls. We are to be the Lord's witnesses—telling of the love of God and the atoning death of Jesus Christ for sin. We are to testify about what He has done in our own lives, both with our words and by our example. So long as there remains a soul on earth who hasn't heard the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, we have work to do!

Second, we are to grow spiritually, developing an ever-increasing intimacy with the Lord. None of us fully lives up to our spiritual potential. We all have room to grow. In those areas where we discover we are unlike Christ, we must work with the Spirit to become conformed to His likeness. Our minds must be renewed (see Rom. 12:1). Our inner hurts and emotions must be healed. We must grow in spiritual discernment and in the wisdom of God. Our faith must be strengthened and used so that our prayers and our actions more effectively build up the Lord's kingdom.

3. We are to wait. Waiting isn't easy. Impatience often leads to frustration. Waiting can also cause a buildup of fear; the longer something anticipated doesn't happen, the greater our concern with what will happen, which can degenerate into worry over what might happen—and fear is only a step away.

The angels spoke peace to the earth at Jesus' first coming (see Luke 2:14). More than four hundred times in the Scriptures, the Lord says that we are not to fear, but to enjoy peace. The prophet Isaiah referred to Jesus as the Prince of Peace (Is. 9:6). Throughout His ministry, the Lord Jesus spoke peace: to the woman with an issue of blood He said, "Go in peace"; to a stormy sea He said, "Peace be still"; and to His disciples He said, "My peace I give you." The Lord calls us to peace as we await His return.

Apart from Jesus, there is no peace—not within a human heart, and not among human beings or nations. With Jesus, we can experience peace that passes our rational minds and settles deep within (Phil. 4:7). We are to seek and find this peace as we await the Lord's return.

When the Lord comes, will He find you among those who love Him and call Him Savior and Lord?

When the Lord comes, will He find you doing what He has command you to do?

When the Lord comes, will He find you eager to see Him?

When the Lord comes, will He find you ready for His appearing?

When the Lord calls with a shout from heaven, will you instantly rise to be with Him?

When the Lord appears in the clouds, will your heart rejoice with exceedingly great joy?

You have it within your grasp to positively answer these questions. How will you choose to respond to the Lord's challenges upon your life?

The fact is: He is coming again!

This Concordance is designed to help you locate important occurrences of significant words, phrases, and proper names found in the Bible. Words and phrases are referenced with Scripture quotations, in which the first letter of the word or phrase, italicized, stands for the entire word or phrase. Phrases are cross-referenced under every major word of the phrase except the first. When looking up a word, be sure to check for related forms of the word and for phrases beginning with that word.

Proper names are defined by descriptive phrases and Scripture references. If a name applies to more than one person, place, or group (see ABIJAH, below), the different identities are distinguished by the dash ("——").
